GERMAN DESTROYER SENT DOWN BY ARMY FLYERS.

Greatest Spectacle in History of Air Service Takes Place Eighty Miles at Sea Off Virginia Capes.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
ON BOARD U.S.S. DELAWARE, OFF THE VIRGINIA CAPE, July 13.—Army airmen accounted today for the former German destroyer G-102, in what was regarded by Army and Navy officers as one of the greatest spectacles in the history of American air service.

Thirty-five Army planes and three blimps came eighty miles to sea to participate in the operations, demonstrating the ability of this arm of the national defense forces to go out and meet an enemy fleet approaching the coast. All but two of the aircraft returned safely, and the crews of those two were rescued by naval vessels after the planes were forced down to the water.

Twenty-four of the aircraft that put out from shore took direct part in the attack, launching eighty-four bombs, twenty of which found the target. Seventeen hits were made with twenty-five pound bombs dropped by ten pursuit planes, but did little damage. The other three hits were scored with 350-pounders. They sent the destroyer down to the bottom of the sea, and the former German submarine, U-117, sunk by naval aviators three weeks ago.

BRIDGE IS STRUCK.
The first of the bombs to find the mark struck the G-102's bridge, carrying part of it away and blowing out the forward smoke stack. The second—dropped by the same plane, the thirteenth of the Martin bombers in the second attacking squadron of fourteen—struck the starboard side of the destroyer near the water line and tore away part of her shell plating above and below the water. These hits were scored fifty minutes after the first attack was started.

The former enemy craft immediately began to settle by the bow, and in five minutes her forecastle deck was nearly submerged. She was not received her death blow, as she ceased to settle, awaiting the final hit.

This came, twenty minutes later, when the fortieth bomb dropped by the Martin planes, struck flush on the deck, just forward of amidships. The theory of battle was carried out by the Army Air Force, which operated under the personal direction of Brig. Gen. Mitchell, assistant chief of the Army Air Service, driving a single-seat pursuit plane, observing and fast pursuit planes were circling about while one of the "snipers" and theoretically clear the air for the heavy bombers, which came afterwards.

FLEET LOOKS ON.
The G-102 was anchored in a semicircle of battleships, destroyers and naval auxiliaries when the first of the Army planes was sighted just before the "zero" hour, set for 9 a.m. They had been preceded by a fairly heavy sea and there was a strong wind blowing. This served to clear away the low-hanging clouds before the final attack by the Martin bombers began.

The first Army planes out were observers, those aboard getting the range. They had been preceded by half a dozen planes, two of the NC type, which crossed the Atlantic, and they circled about while one of the Army observers, an S-5 pursuit plane, gave a fancy exhibition of stunt flying over the target.

At 9:15 o'clock the first of the bombing force came up over the horizon. This was a squadron of ten fast pursuit planes, each carrying a single bomb.

BONUS BILL VOTE FRIDAY.

Agreement Reached in the Senate After Assault by Democrats.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, July 13.—An agreement for a vote Friday at 3 o'clock on the motion to recommit the soldiers' bonus bill was reached by the Senate late today by unanimous consent. The result of the vote, leaders of both factions agreed, was not in doubt; recommitment, as requested by President Harding, is deemed certain.

Senator Lodge secured the agreement at the close of another day's assault by Democratic Senators. He said the recommitment motion was in the way of other important measures such as the anti-bear and maturity bills. In agreeing to a vote, however, Democrats gave notice they would not only oppose the Republican motion, but would seek to instruct the Finance Committee to report the bill back at an early date.

Senators Watson of Georgia and Heflin of Alabama led the Democratic attack today on the motion to recommit.

The voting agreement involves holding the bonus measure and the recommitment motion before the Senate continuously until the roll call Friday. It was reached after the Republican side gave up hope of securing a vote either today or tomorrow. Private overtures for a vote were rejected by Democratic Senators, who insisted that the bill should be given for presentation of the opposition arguments to the country.

WATSON TIRADE.
That President Harding had exceeded his constitutional limitations in asking the Senate to postpone consideration of the bill, was asserted by Senator Watson. "The Republican move, he said, was to send the bill to a committee to be reported on at a later date. He said the bill was a Republican measure, and now was saying, 'deliver the goods.' The same interests, he said, were threatening to be defeated here and in

CUT FREIGHT TARIFFS ON CAN GOODS.

Varied California Canned Goods Also to Get Lower Rates.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—Reduced rates on shipments of canned goods and farm products from California points to New York and Gulf ports for export shipment to foreign countries, to be effective about ten days, were announced today by the Santa Fe Railroad and lower rates on apple shipments and canned goods and farm products from California to eastern territory effective July 31 and August 23, respectively, were made public by the Southern Pacific Railroad.

The new Santa Fe rates on export shipments will be as follows: Dried fruit in boxes 95 cents; apples 1.15; canned goods 80 cents; beans 1.00; barley 50 cents; rice 30 cents.

The export reduction ranged from 10 to 25 cents per 100 pounds. The new rates announced by the Santa Fe follows one made yesterday, stating that in about ten days rates on shipments of beans, canned goods, condensed milk, canned salmon, rice, dried fruit in sacks and boxes from California points to eastern territory will be decreased from 15 to 25 per cent.

The Pacific Railroad, through G. W. Lucas, freight traffic manager, made public a new rate schedule on apple shipments from California to the East to be effective July 21. The new schedule is as follows: Apples, minimum carload weight 30,000 pounds, not subject to storage in transit, $1.60 per 100 pounds. The old rate was $1.65.

Apples, minimum carload weight, 30,000 pounds, subject to storage in transit, $1.60. Old rate, $1.75.

GREAT BRITAIN, ITALY AND JAPAN ACCEPT INVITATION; ALL PLEDGE CO-OPERATION

(BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
HONOLULU, July 13.—A Tokio dispatch to the Japanese newspaper, Nippon Jiji, here, states that the Japanese government has instructed its Washington Embassy to inform the United States of Japan's acceptance of President Harding's invitation to a disarmament conference. The Japanese press is heartily indorsing the proposed conference and predicting it will result in the formation of a new league or association of nations along the lines which President Harding suggested.

GREAT BRITAIN, ITALY ACCEPT.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, July 13.—Additional pledges of co-operation reached Washington from several quarters today in response to President Harding's proposal for an international conference on limitation of armaments and other world problems.

Definite acceptance of the President's invitation were received today from Great Britain and Italy, while informal advice came that a favorable reply from China might be expected soon.

France having previously expressed her willingness to take part in the only invited power from which no sort of an expression had been received tonight was Japan.

OFFICIALS CONFIDENT.
Administration officials were confident of an acceptance from the United States, however, and in Japanese quarters here it was indicated that the delay undoubtedly was due to the formalities of consultation among various branches of the Japanese government which are necessary in the decision of an important public question.

It is understood that no advice of an adverse nature has reached the State Department from powers not asked to participate. Sentiment abroad seems content with the President's decision to have the membership of the conference limited to the big five powers and China.

Press dispatches indicating that some British statesmen desired to have the preliminaries of the conference held in London were not taken seriously, either in British quarters here or by officials of the administration. It was pointed out that the British government had accepted definitely the President's proposal for holding the meeting here.

AMERICA HOST.
America's high America officials there was manifest a strong sentiment that the whole conference should be held here, both on account of the location and the fact that the United States had accepted the President's proposal for holding the meeting here.

DAWN OF PEACE TODAY?

De Valera and Lloyd George to Meet in Downing Street Cabinet Room.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
LONDON, July 13.—A conversation which it is hoped may mark the last act of one phase of Ireland's troubled history and serve as a prelude to the long-sought peace in the island is to take place in the dingy old Cabinet room on Downing street tomorrow. The British Prime Minister, Lloyd George, and the Irish republican leader, Eamonn de Valera, will meet in an effort to clear the stage for holding a three-party conference, in which Great Britain, Sinn Fein and Ulster will endeavor to compose their differences.

One of the most convincing indications of the reality of the peace is the reluctance of both sides to discuss the details of the session. Both parties feel that the situation is so delicate that a single unfortunate word might jeopardize the entire proceeding.

Both sides are silent. Yet both sides have "propaganda mills" fully organized.

EASTERNERS SWELTER.

New Records Made in Heat Wave.

Persons in Mississippi Valley Die; Thermometer Above 100 Degrees.

Warm Weather Hastens Crops; Fear Corn Production Is Doomed.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
CHICAGO, July 13.—The Midwest Mississippi Valley States are in the grip of a heat wave that not only is taking lives and daily establishing new temperature records, but threatens to seriously blight the various crops. Reports today from Iowa, Illinois, Missouri, Nebraska and Minnesota showed temperatures ranging around the 100 mark and in a number of instances the mercury had passed that point.

In Wisconsin and Iowa and other western rural communities day-time work on farms has been suspended and fields are being tilled in crops harvested by moonlight. Opinion is unanimous that the torrid wave was hastening the maturity of the corn crop and that as up in a short while all available immediately will fall far below expectations.

Temperatures in Iowa have been steadily ascending for the last four days, reaching their climax Tuesday and today. In Clinton, the mercury passed 100 degrees, marking early today. Burlington established a new heat record at 101 degrees. Davenport, reported 102 degrees, reported its hottest day in 120 years. Cedar Rapids reported 102 degrees, while all other cities reported the mercury hovering about the 100-degree mark.

HIGH HUMIDITY.
Illinois was getting the same dose with a high humidity pressing down as the temperature rose. At Dixon, a new mark was established at 104, while Springfield, Rock Island, Macon, Champaign, Rockford and a score of other down-State cities reported temperatures above 100. At Rockford the temperature has reached 104 degrees on two consecutive days, with the minimum above 90. In the last four weeks only five days have been under 90. Wisconsin points all reported excessive temperatures, ranging around 100, with the exception of Green Bay, where local rain and electrical storm last night forced the mercury down to 74.

Five more persons succumbed to the heat here today, as the mercury in the government thermometer again passed the 90 mark, with the humidity heavier than at any time during the recent wave. The weather department held that no relief was in sight.

LEGION MEN TO VISIT FRANCE.

Two Hundred Members Will Go on Pilgrimage.

Every Section of Country to be Represented.

Former Soldiers to be Guests of French People.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

NEW YORK, July 13.—The 250 members of the American Legion, who will visit France in August and September at the invitation of President Millerand, will represent every section of the United States, and all arms of the fighting forces of the war. Every State will have its quota and if possible every combat division will have representation, says an announcement by the Legion.

A fund quota, based on Legion membership, has been allotted to each State. Not all who have asked to be included can go, but it is the purpose of President Millerand, the former National Commander of the Legion, who is in charge of the expedition, to make the party a cross section of our former fighting forces. Selection of the members is in the hands of the State organizations of the Legion.

VISIT BATTLEFIELDS.
Details of the tour in France which have just been made public show that the Americans will visit again the principal American battlefields, attend various dedicatory ceremonies, and will be entertained at numerous receptions.

The party will sail aboard the steamer George Washington on August 2, and will return about the middle of September. The principal events of the visit will be the dedication at Flanders of a monument to the American Army, which is the gift of the French municipality and the people of Lorraine, and the laying of the cornerstone of the new bridge "Pont Roosevelt" over the Marne.

President Millerand, Premier Briand and the marshals of France are expected to be present at the ceremonies at Flanders. Flanders is familiar ground to the A.E.F. It is there that the Legion first met, which the American troops took over in 1917. The village itself is only 10 miles from the front.

CO-OPERATION IS PROMISED.

Another indication of the little town of St. Die in the old Dunneville sector, also long held by Americans. St. Die's claim to special attention in light of the Legion visit rests on the fact that in St. Die stands the house in which the continent of America received its name. It is the one-time abode of Waldsee-Muller, the Alsatian monk, whom he wrote the letter suggesting that the new world take the name of the Italian navigator, America.

At Rheims the veterans will attend the presentation of the 3,000,000-franc gift of the Carnegie Foundation to the city library. At St. Jeanne d'Arc will be honored. The Legionnaires will witness the dedication of a statue to the French heroine, which is the gift of the Joah of Arc committee of New York.

PAT OWN EXPENSES.
Under the terms by which the Legion accepted the hospitality of the French government, the expenses of the expedition will be borne by the delegates themselves or by the Legion organization.

It is said that the proposal for the visit has been received with such enthusiasm by the American veterans as to constitute a striking and spontaneous tribute to France as a former ally.

The American veterans feel that the forthcoming expedition marks the entrance of the Legion on the stage of international affairs and that it will tend to knit more closely a mutual understanding among veterans, not only of France, but of all nations of all Allied countries," he said. It shows that in the hearts of Americans who wear the uniform of the Legion dwells an abiding affection for France and the allies. It is noteworthy that many applications come from men who did not see foreign service during the war.

WASHINGTON NEWS IN BRIEF.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Administration officials made it emphatic today that this government would not welcome any proposal to hold a military conference between the United States and the Pacific and eastern issues or any other phase of the armament limitation conference proposed by President Harding. They do not want the success of the forthcoming discussion contingent upon any international caucus abroad. Formal acceptance of the Harding invitation came today from Great Britain and Italy, with Japan yet to be heard from officially. China has given assurances of acceptance.

The Senate Finance Committee today again delayed progress on the Sweet veterans' relief bill, approving, however, the recommendation of the subcommittee to make the veterans' relief bureau a separate government organization. Some members of the committee balked at estimates that the provision to liberalize the compensation law would cost $100,000 a year.

Consolidation of the War and Navy departments into one department of national defense was reported today to be included in the forthcoming recommendations of the Joint Congressional committee for government reorganization.

Representative Green of Iowa, Republican, in supporting the Fordney tariff bill during the debate in the House, said that many of its rates are lower than in the Payne-Aldrich law. Representative Carey of New York, Democrat, assailed the American valuation plan.

The Senate agreed today to vote Friday afternoon on President Harding's suggestion that the soldier's bonus bill be indefinitely, owing to the financial stringency of the government.

Not more than four American claims have been filed, according to information available here, although it is known that numerous claimants are merely awaiting a suitable time to submit their requests for investigation.

Obregon's decree makes no mention of naming a judge or umpire, but it is believed that such an official would be jointly selected by the Mexican and foreign representatives.

INSTRUCTIONS ISSUED.
The Foreign Secretary's instructions to various embassies and legations request the diplomats to inform the governments of the United States and Mexico of the progress of the commission.

LA FOLLETTE LOSES.
Resolutions expressing a vote of the United States Senate to the U. S. Senator La Follette for his action in opposing military operations against Mexico without the consent of Congress were voted down last night in the Senate.

CLASH AT JACONA.
Efforts on the part of the Governor of the State of Michigan to impose a Mayor of his own choice upon the village of Jacona were met yesterday by armed resistance, and in the ensuing clash several persons were wounded. It is said in newspaper dispatches, Catholics residing in the village objected to the Mayor chosen by the Governor, and it is said they still were in control of the place.

Jacona was recently the scene of a radical demonstration, and Catholics protested against the alleged desecration of their church in the fighting between the two factions there were several casualties.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
TAMPAICO, July 13.—Gen. Arnulfo R. Gomez, commander of the Mexican military forces in the oil region, expressed regret today that the United States cruisers Sacramento and Cleveland sailed from Tampico this morning, as he had planned to entertain the officers of the warships, with whom he had a cordial relationship.

"I regret the American warships left before I could carry out the plan," he said. "I am sure that the officers of the United States navy will find in the Mexican people a warm and friendly reception."

Gen. Gomez declared that upon the arrival of the warships in Tampico he immediately met the officers, and the meeting was extremely cordial. He had intended, he said, to have the officers under his command visit the oil fields, but he was unable to do so because of the departure of the warships.

"The only thing to do," said Gen. Gomez, "is to crush agitators who are using the insurance of Mexican workers for their evil purposes. Fortunately the Mexican workers love their country and will not provoke conflicts."

He identified three applications for automobile licenses which Mr. Stillman made, which the witness attested as a notary public.

Viola Hill, who nursed Mrs. Leeds after the birth of Jay Ward Leeds in September, 1919, identified Stillman's photograph as "Mr. Leeds," and told of seeing him and Mrs. Leeds in intimate contact.

RANKS FIRST IN FATALITY AUTOTABLES.

National Safety Council's Manager Compares Record With Other Cities.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

ST. LOUIS, July 13.—Low Angeles ranks as the most dangerous of the large cities of the United States, according to an analysis of automobile fatalities for last year in eight cities, according to reports made public today by Carl Smith, manager of the National Safety Council.

The analysis is based on the rate of automobile accidents per 1,000,000 population for last year. Los Angeles leads the list with a rate of 36.5. The list follows: Los Angeles, 36.5; Cincinnati, 19.5; Detroit, 18.5; Chicago, 14.5; Pittsburgh, 14.5; Milwaukee, 14.5; New York, 13.7; St. Louis, 12.1.

Other figures compiled show that females are sufferers in 23 per cent of the total automobile fatalities in the United States. No fewer than 187 were killed from 1914 to 1920 by them," said Mr. Smith.

Fruit Committee to Handle Output from Six States.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

PORTLAND (Or.) July 13.—A central marketing organization will be formed to handle the fruit output of six Western States, according to a plan announced today at a conference here of growers from Washington, Idaho, Montana, California, Utah and Oregon.

The program will be entrusted to a committee composed of three members from each of the six States. The organization now existing in these States, it was declared.

George Mansfield, president of the Oregon Farm Bureau Federation, addressing the conference today, made a plea for amalgamation of the various marketing associations.

The Western Fruit Marketing conference today adopted resolutions requesting the Federal government to take immediate steps to improve facilities for moving perishable food products by a return to a system of licensed dealers in effect during the war, and to provide an adequate government inspection system that will protect shippers and dealers.

It will pay fruit growers to advertise to the same extent that it pays merchants to advertise, said Mr. Lewis, assistant general manager of the Oregon Growers' Co-operative Association, declared in an address.

policy to which he is pledged, is a question which one of his associates today dealt with as follows: "Two weeks ago many of us could have answered that query briefly and certainly, but the position is altered now."

Those who have followed recent events closely interpret this as an indication that the British leader would not press the claim for an independent republic, but parry in an effort to learn the utmost Great Britain was prepared to give, then submitting the matter to the Dal Elean.

Mr. James Craig, the Ulster premier, is pressing from Belfast to night. There is some uncertainty whether the premier or De Valera will have colleagues at the first meeting.

The original intention was to have an introductory meeting between the two men, but because of the standing dangers of a misunderstanding arising in such unaided discussions, it was considered probable tonight that each would be accompanied by at least one man. In that event Arthur Griffith is most likely to act with his chief.

To what extent the public will be permitted to know what transpires within the conference chamber will be determined tomorrow. Both camps manifest the belief that the purposes of the conferences would be best served by withholding the details until a conclusive result is attained.

Government Makes Appropriation for Navy at San Diego.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SAN DIEGO, July 13.—Formal announcement was made today at the public works office here that naval funds aggregating more than $2,000,000 were available for navy projects here in the fiscal year 1921-22. Included in this sum is an item of $125,000, part of an unexpended appropriation for general aviation purposes, of which news was received here today.

This will be spent in addition to the hangars for airplanes of the Pacific air force at North Island. Other projects on which navy funds will be spent here in the next 12 months are the naval training station on Point Loma, fleet warehouse, and administration building, marine brigade post, naval hospital in Balboa Park and the naval air station. It is expected that the hospital will be placed in commission late this fall and the naval training station early next spring.

Charge Against Woman Who Claim on Roosevelt Estate.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

CLINTON (Ind.) July 13.—Mrs. Emma R. Barker of Clinton, who recently put in a claim for $60,000 against the estate of Theodore Roosevelt, was arrested today. Sheriff Sweet took her to the County Jail at Newport, Ind. The arrest came after Mrs. Barker had notified Sheriff Sweet to take the woman into custody for forgery, claiming she had forged the name of Theodore Roosevelt on the note for $60,000, which was purported to bear the signature of late colonel as surety and of Charles J. Shannon as president.

Mrs. Barker in a letter to the publisher of a Clinton paper denied she had admitted the forgery of the Roosevelt note, to P. M. Hamilton of Jerseyville, Ill., who was prosecutor at the place when Mrs. Barker faced the same sort of a charge some years ago.

She claims the note is valid and that she expects to collect it. BELIEVES WOMAN FOOL.
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

NEW YORK, July 13.—John T. Dooling, Assistant District Attorney, whose investigation led to the order for the arrest of Mrs. Emma Barker at her home in Hillsdale, Ind., on a charge of forging the indorsement of the late Col. Theodore Roosevelt to a promissory note for $60,000, today declared his belief that the woman was the tool of a band of men who had, during the last fifteen years, defrauded the estates of several prominent men in this country through the presentation of spurious promissory notes.

Mr. Dooling said that he based his belief, among other things, on the fact that although Mrs. Barker was filing her claim with Col. Roosevelt's widow and George Emlyn Roosevelt, executors of the estate, had declared that she had loaned the money to a mysterious Charles J. Shannon, she asked that the principal be returned by the estate in four installments of $15,000 each, were to go to persons other than herself.

He added that Detective Sergeant John Cunniff of District Attorney's office, was sent to interview Mrs. Barker at her home in Hillsdale ten days ago. Mr. Dooling indicated that the woman made several admissions to the detective, who posed as a representative of the National National Bank, which indicated that she was not the leader in the alleged conspiracy.

Mr. Dooling, in line with his theory that the woman was connected with the attempt to defraud the Roosevelt estate, explained that the three persons to whom Mrs. Barker directed the $60,000 were residents of different States and that the address given by her for one of them was a blank.

HOTEL RATES WILL STAY UP.

No Chance for Drop, State Convention Delegates.

Protests Against Charges Are Made at Meeting.

Lumber Jacks Demand Sweet Since Prohibition.

[REUTERS DISPATCH.] CHICAGO, July 13.—Hotel rates are not likely to be lowered for the present nor for some time to come. This was indicated at the opening session of the American Hotel Association today when Secretary-Treasurer J. K. Blatchford read a number of telegrams of protest from manufacturing concerns all over the country against the present high rates.

Secretary Blatchford read the protests and then presented the report of a special committee which has been studying the rate subject. The report declared that rates had not been raised in the same ratio that operating expense had risen during the war, because an unusual and abnormal volume of business had made it unnecessary.

BUSINESS DISAPPEARS. This volume of business has now disappeared, the report stated, and operating costs had gone down only slightly. "The hotels are in much the same position of the railroads so far as operating expenses are concerned," said the report. "Reductions now or in the near future seem unlikely."

W. N. Robinson, president of the association, told of the activities of the association during the past year. He said that more than 500 check forgers and professional dead-beats have been tracked down and $240,000 recovered by the detective bureau of this organization.

O. A. Seasholm, who operates a restaurant in the California lumber camp, told of the extraordinary change in appetite of the "lumber jacks" since prohibition became operative.

"The lumber jacks used to keep the boys hustling to serve them beef and other meats," Seasholm said. "But with prohibition here, you should see the change. The boys take sweets. If they don't get sweets, they go some place where they will get their pastry and ice cream. It costs us about 60 per cent more money to feed them now than before prohibition."

There is no convention complete without its bridal couple. The hotel men's affair was voted a success when Sam H. Lackland, purchasing agent for the Fairmount Hotel, San Francisco, drove up to the Coliseum with his bride of two weeks in a runabout.

NEW LONG-DISTANCE RECORD IN WIRELESS.

[BY A. P. MONT WIRE.] VANCOUVER (B. C.) July 13.—What is said to be a record for long distance wireless on the Pacific coast was established today when the Merchants' Exchange here received a radiogram giving the position of the Canadian-Australian liner Makura, which was one day out of Auckland (N. Z.) a distance of 4000 miles.

TERRITORY WET, BUT GATES TO STAY DRY.

YUKON'S ARDOR FALLS WHEN GOVERNMENT PUTS ON LIQUOR EMBARGO.

[BY A. P. MONT WIRE.] DAWSON (Y. T.) July 13.—The enthusiasm of the wet in the Yukon over the big vote on Monday in favor of importation of liquor was dampened today when it was learned the United States already had enforced an embargo on all liquor shipments through its territory. All transportation routes into the Yukon cross American territory in Alaska.

Canadian Pacific Railway officials at Skagway, Alaska, notified George P. McKenzie, chief executive of the Yukon territory, that only shipments which arrived on the steamer at Skagway today would be allowed to go forward.

Mr. McKenzie said that unless permission from the United States authorities could be obtained the Yukon would be cut off from its liquor supply.

SHARP DECLINE IN SHIP CONSTRUCTION.

GREATEST FALLING OFF RECORDED SINCE BUILDING PEAK REACHED IN 1919.

[BY A. P. MONT WIRE.] NEW YORK, July 13.—Merchant shipbuilding in all countries fell off nearly 900,000 gross tons for the quarter ending June 30 last, as compared with the previous three months, according to a report made public by Lloyd's Register of Shipping. This decline, the report said, is the sharpest recorded since construction reached its high peak in the fall of 1919.

American shipping dropped nearly 400,000 tons and British about 270,000 tons, with all other countries about 230,000 tons. No report was obtained from Germany.

Total tonnage under construction June 30 was 5,199,000 tons, of which the United States was building 717,000 and the United Kingdom 2,830,000.

QUAKERS' BODY IS SCATTERED.

Friends Number 115,000 Live from Coast to Coast.

Society Has Two Capitals Philadelphia, Richmond.

Missionary Efforts Well Nigh Encircle Globe.

[BY A. P. MONT WIRE.] RICHMOND (Ind.) July 13.—What are the present activities of the Quakers, has been asked recently. Numerically, "the Friends of America," as they are called, are a small body numbering about 115,000 but distributed from coast to coast.

On the Atlantic Coast are New England, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and North Carolina yearly meetings; on the Pacific Coast, California and Oregon yearly meetings, the latter extending into Washington and Idaho. Inland States in which Friends are numerous are Ohio, Indiana, Iowa and Kansas.

HAVE TWO CAPITALS.

American Quakerism has two capitals, the older one being conservative at the newer at Richmond, Ind. Within a radius of 100 miles of Richmond are to be found approximately one-fourth of American Quakers.

While intensely individualistic in principles and practice, Friends are learning how to unite for accomplishing worth while tasks. Otherwise Friends are not so ready in perfecting the machinery of the American Friends' Service Committee, with headquarters at Philadelphia, which has done a monumental relief work in Europe.

The majority of American yearly meetings are united in a national organization, the five years meeting of Friends in America, which carries on a comprehensive and growing work at home and abroad. The headquarters of this organization are located in Richmond, where the executive staff of the national board are housed in their own office building.

Friends have long been active in foreign mission work. Few as they are in numbers, their missionary work is well known in the globe, including work in Japan, China, India, Africa, Syria, Mexico, Central America, Cuba and Jamaica.

Friends is for the cause of international peace and good will. Theirs is regarded here as the only religious body having a national board on peace. Just now it is very active in the fight for universal disarmament.

In addition to a number of private secondary schools, Quakers support ten colleges, not including Bryn Mawr, which is controlled by a board of trustees composed of Friends. The colleges are located at Haverford and Swarthmore, Pa.; Guilford, N. C.; Wilmington, O.; Ellicottville, N. Y.; and Newburg, Or. and Whittier, Cal.

REVISE RATES, PLEA OF OREGON JOBBERS.

WANT RIGHT TO COMPLETE IN NORTHERN CALIFORNIA AS AGAINST SACRAMENTO.

[BY A. P. MONT WIRE.] SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—Klamath Falls jobbing interests made an appeal to the Interstate Commerce Commission today for a revision of interstate freight rates in Southern Oregon and Northern California that would enable them to compete in Northern California territory against Sacramento and other California jobbers.

Commercial organizations from Portland and Medford also were present to urge the removal of discriminatory rates that they said enabled San Francisco and Oakland to reach Southern Oregon more cheaply than Portland could.

The California Railroad Commission, on the other hand, intervened in the case to resist any effort to bring into question its jurisdiction in interstate rates on which the San Francisco-Southern Oregon rates are based. The Railroad Commission and the San Francisco and Oakland chambers of commerce objected to revision of the California rates between San Francisco Bay territory and Red Bluff and Redding, on the ground that this would disturb the entire Central California rate structure, which was based largely on water competition.

SEES IMPROVEMENT IN LUMBER INDUSTRY.

MILL PRICES WILL NEVER GO BACK TO PREWAR LEVELS IS PREDICTION.

[REUTERS DISPATCH.] CHICAGO, July 13.—Gradual improvement in the lumber industry in the fall was forecast today by Edward Hines, head of the Hines Lumber Company, although mill prices for lumber, he said, would never go back to prewar levels. Thousands of men will return to the lumber camps this fall and the first of next year, he said, and a large and continuous demand for lumber for all purposes.

"The lumber industry is now in a peculiarly fortunate position," Mr. Hines said. "It is not dependent on foreign trade to revive business. The price of lumber has already received a drastic cut and a considerable building demand has already begun. The demand from the farmers will begin with the harvest and resumption of lumber needs by industries and railroads will assure present plants capacity business for years to come."

SEEK OIL IN ALASKA.

[REUTERS DISPATCH.] NEW YORK, July 13.—The Standard Oil Company of California and one of the other oil companies on the west coast have been understood to be exploring for oil in Alaska. According to the information, it is stated that several parties have started on journeys from Nome to Point Barrow, where it is believed oil may be found in quantities large enough to make it of commercial value.

THREE DIRIGIBLES WILL VISIT HERE.

ARMY AND NAVY SENDING ROUTE HUNTING SHIPS ACROSS COUNTRY.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Three great dirigibles will be sent across the United States from the eastern seaboard to Los Angeles in the late summer or early fall. One will be sent by the Navy Department and two by the Army. All of the expeditions will be for experimental and practical purposes to find the best routes and the least susceptible to changes of temperature and consequent deflation and expansion of gas bags.

The Navy dirigible will be stationed at San Diego for a time but will go by Los Angeles instead of attempting to cross the mountains. At present the tentative route is across Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and from Tuma up the valleys to Riverside and down the San Gabriel Valley to Los Angeles. This trip will be so arranged that the big naval ship will reach Los Angeles the last of August or early in September.

Plans for the dispatching of the Army dirigibles are not so well advanced but it is now planned to have them take different routes and complete data along the way to be of use in charting the best routes for preservation in the military archives. When the dirigibles reach California they will make their headquarters at Ross Field, but will make trips along the coast for military practice purposes.

ADE DENIES HE EVER KNEW BOOZE RUNNER.

INDICATES ATTEMPT OF THE GOVERNMENT TO CONNECT HIM WITH PURCHASE.

[REUTERS DISPATCH.] CHICAGO, July 13.—Udell Sam's attempt to connect him with the purchase of liquor from the Walsh gang of "de luxe booze runners" was ridiculed today by George Ade, humorist and playwright. Mr. Ade's name was found on a list of customers found in the Chicago headquarters of the gang.

"I don't know Walsh, never saw him, and never bought liquor of him," said Mr. Ade at his farm home at Brook, Ind.

At home a principal concern of Ade is for the cause of international peace and good will. Theirs is regarded here as the only religious body having a national board on peace. Just now it is very active in the fight for universal disarmament.

McDonald of the Criminal Court today set Brykallo's bonds at $15,000, permitted the striker to sign them himself, and then sent him to the County Hospital under guard.

FIRST VIEW OF WOMAN JOLTS HIM.

Thirty-three-Year-Old Recluse Sees Civilization After Hegira.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH.)

OMAHA, July 13.—Tracy Gillis has just let his eyes first fall on a woman. He has also had his first view of a railroad train, a street car, a daily paper and a fiction magazine.

Upon seeing a woman for the first time, Gillis visited a barber shop and had his long hair cut and his face shaved.

Gillis is 33 years old. He was born in Chicago. His mother was an actress and his father a disciple of Moody and Sankey. But for a third of a century father and son, have lived alone on a Western Nebraska ranch forty miles from a railroad, with no stranger stepping within its fence posts.

George Gillis, the father, died recently, two years short of his 60th birthday and ten which he believed had been promised him. Tracy, the son, buried the body on the ranch and went on with his farm work. Today he came to Omaha on his pioneer journey with a load of sheep.

To inquisitive strangers here he told his story, verified in its Nebraska details by a neighbor. According to the tale, the elder Gillis trafficked with his neighboring farmers only on their property and never on his own. For fear his son's ears should pick up hints of civilization, the father fled to the West with his son to save him from the dancing, singing, actresses in Chicago's old Haymarket Theatre. A few weeks earlier the boy's mother, whose name was Maggie Ives, had deserted her husband and gone with another man to the Twin Cities. Gillis at the same time had proclaimed himself a convert in a Moody and Sankey prayer meeting.

The claim upon which the ex-Chicagoan settled was at that time 150 miles from a railroad. The son was then 3 years old. The father resolved that his son should not know what he mentioned in his prayers as "the terrible realities of the flesh" supplied his son's education. With the exception of a few agricultural and religious papers, the Bible was the only book he ever saw.

"A devil lurks on every city street corner, father taught me," Tracy Gillis said today. "He told me the story of my mother and warned me to avoid all sinful men."

With the money from the sale of his cattle Gillis traded his home-made garments for a suit of store clothes. He also bought a safety razor, a tube of tooth paste and two silk neckties. He is willing to admit that one glimpse of the city has demoralized him. In his plans for the future which include continued residence in his secluded residence he mentions a wife and a course in agriculture.

BURGLAR-PROOF DOOR SAVES BANK CASH.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH.)

MARTINEZ, July 13.—The front door of the First National Bank of San Francisco, fifteen miles from here, was pried off last night and the outer door of the vault and a fireproof door forced but the burglars abandoned their efforts when confronted with a burglar-proof inner door. Electric drills apparently were used on the vault doors, according to the police, and blankets found in the bank indicated that the burglars expected to use nitroglycerine to finish the job.

Three men who came to the scene in an automobile are believed by the police to have made the attempt on the bank.

AMERICAN BABES BABIES NO MORE.

Youngster of Today Athletic from Birth; Carriages Make It Tough.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH.)

CHICAGO, July 13.—Baby perambulators, with frills and canopies, have gone out of style and the American baby is now riding in a carriage which will make it tough and strong, O. W. Siebert of Gardner, Mass., president of the Baby Vehicle Manufacturers' Association, told its convention today.

"The American baby of today is athletic from birth," Mr. Siebert said. "Baskets swinging from the inside rail of an automobile are fast coming into vogue, solving the problem of what to do with the baby on an automobile trip. Mr. Siebert said. Prices are going down, too, he said, so that the high cost of cradling the youngsters around will soon be much less than at present."

FLOOD DAMAGE IS NOT LARGE.

Yuma Checks Up and Finds Itself Lucky.

Rise Placed Sand Bar Where It Was Needed.

Engineers and Volunteers Worked Hard.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
YUMA (Ariz.), July 13.—The damage done through the breaking of the Colorado River levee at the seventeen-mile post. It is not heavy, though 1800 acres of land were covered and hundreds of yards of levee and of canal banks were swept away.

The first break occurred June 28. Within four days the break had assumed proportions at the time considered alarming, and there was call for the help of every available man. Under direction of Reclamation Service engineers, probably 1000 volunteers were put at work with teams and scrapers and filling sand bags on a second line of defense that eventually proved effective against the cutting of the falling river.

The women helped, also, bringing food and drink for the workers, at times helping in the filling of the 10,000 sand bags that had to be used. The celebration of Independence Day had to be postponed till the day after the week, when it partook also of some of the features of Thanksgiving Day.

The rise did some good. It placed a great sandbar against the upper or Gila levee, one that had been considered in dangerous condition, and the river main channel now is a half-mile distant from the line on which the safety of the city has been threatened for the past six months.

MIDDLE WEST NEWS IN BRIEF.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
ST. LOUIS, July 13.—Missouri farmers are threshing 22,444,000 bushels of wheat from 2,744,000 acres, with 45,965,000 bushels of oats on 1,846,000 acres, and have 9,331,000 acres of growing corn, indicating 188,600,000 bushels, according to farmer-made returns in the State Federal July crop report announced yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. K. Starnard, accompanied by their daughter Eleanor, left yesterday for the Canadian Pacific tour. They will return in September.

Mrs. John Kattell and her daughter Lily are spending the summer in California. Later they will tour the Pacific Coast and the Canadian Rockies.

OMAHA, July 13.—Construction of Tecumseh's swimming pond is now under way. The pool is being built in the city park by donation of money and labor, without a cent of expense to the city. More teams are working on the excavation were of the pond.

From present indications, State taxes for 1921 will be 18.15 mills, according to a statement issued by State Tax Commissioner Osborne. The mill levy last year, Osborne stated, was 18.15.

Mrs. Thomas H. Fell has as her guest for the summer her niece, Miss Palmer, daughter of Col. Charles Day Palmer of New York City.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 13.—"I have not been served and I have not given 10,000 sand bags that had to be used. The celebration of Independence Day had to be postponed till the day after the week, when it partook also of some of the features of Thanksgiving Day."

Dr. A. C. Fairbairn, 78 years old, formerly one of the leading surgeons of the Northwest, is dead.

Miss Rose, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. D. Kaufman, for a month.

ST. PAUL, July 13.—Pointing out that A. C. Townley, nonpartisan league leader, has not begun to serve the ninety-day jail sentence imposed on him two years ago by Judge E. C. Dean at Jackson, Minn., sixty members of the Second Congressional District Editorial Association, in session in Fairmont, passed a resolution calling on the Minnesota Supreme Court to "stop his quibbling and force Townley to serve."

Home brew made in part from the waters of the Minnesota River near Shakopee, Minn., was the cause of several cases of typhoid fever near that place, Dr. A. J. Chesley, secretary of the State Board of Health, reports.

DENVER, July 13.—Arthur V. Cole of Denver, until recently assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Castle Rock, Colo., was arrested by Federal authorities at his home Monday, charged with abstracting several thousand dollars from the bank while employed as an official.

Hershel L. Newton, since 1921 secretary and custodian of the Denver Police Department, was arrested in Louisville, Ky., on a charge of drunkenness. In the succeeding year, under prohibition, only 412 arrests were made on this charge. In the last wet year 255 persons were arrested on robbery charges while the figure in the first dry year was only seventy-two.

"Liquor offenses," says the report, "during prohibition, fell off 44.5 per cent in the first year."

Total arrests for drunkenness in Peoria, Ill., in the last wet year were 1740; first dry year, 238. Total arrests in Peoria for all causes last wet year, 5946; first dry year, 2821.

The Cincinnati assault and battery cases dropped from 772 to 456; murder from thirty-eight to seven, and disorderly conduct from 325 to 1727 in the first year of prohibition.

ARCTIC SEA GALE WORST FOR YEARS.

Schooner Gertrude Completes Loss, and Other Vessels Are Not Heard From.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NOME (Alaska), July 13.—The schooner Gertrude, bound from Nome to Siberian coast points, was wrecked in a gale off East Cape five days ago, and is a total loss, according to a message received here from the Coast Guard cutter Bear. The crew is returning to Nome on the Bear.

The schooner Ram, with a number of passengers aboard, is ten days overdue from Teller, Alaska, and fear has been expressed for the safety of the craft. She has not been sighted by the Bear.

The Bear announced she had Capt. Knud Amundsen's disabled exploring ship, Maud, in tow, and would arrive here Thursday or Friday. Heavy weather has been experienced all along the Northern Siberian and Alaskan coasts. The Bear also reported that the schooner Polar Bear, owned by the Arctic Trading Company of San Francisco, has finally freed herself from the ice, which she entered near Kolima, Siberia, and has headed for Nome.

SEATTLE (Wash.), July 13.—The gale, which for the last week, has swept Bering Sea, was one of the worst experienced in the northern waters for several years, according to messages received here today. The Alaska Steamship Company reported that the steamer Ketchikan has been storm bound at Teller, Alaska, 106 miles from Nome, since last Thursday. The steamer La Touche, operated by the same company, arrived in Nome roadstead last Monday, but was unable to discharge her freight because of the violence of the storm. The gale was reported as abating today.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
CHICAGO, July 13.—Police statistics tending to show a reduction of crime since the advent of prohibition were issued here today by the board of temperance, prohibition and public morals of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

From June 30, 1918, to June 30, 1919, the year just preceding prohibition, 3514 persons were arrested in Louisville, Ky., on a charge of drunkenness. In the succeeding year, under prohibition, only 412 arrests were made on this charge. In the last wet year 255 persons were arrested on robbery charges while the figure in the first dry year was only seventy-two.

"Liquor offenses," says the report, "during prohibition, fell off 44.5 per cent in the first year."

Total arrests for drunkenness in Peoria, Ill., in the last wet year were 1740; first dry year, 238. Total arrests in Peoria for all causes last wet year, 5946; first dry year, 2821.

The Cincinnati assault and battery cases dropped from 772 to 456; murder from thirty-eight to seven, and disorderly conduct from 325 to 1727 in the first year of prohibition.

LITIGATION DUE ON HOUSE BILL
Arizona Legislature Starts Legal Tangle.
Phoenix Mayor's Report Seeks Increase in Salaries.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
PHOENIX, July 13.—There will have to be resort to the courts with respect to questions that attend attempted enactment of the will of the Legislature with respect to House Bill No. 43. This measure was one that sought to place before the people the question of backing irrigation bonds with State bonds, the matter to be submitted at a special election this fall.
Before ninety days had elapsed there was filed with the Secretary of State a petition signed by over 4000 persons, or about twice the required number, asking that there be suspension of the fourth paragraph of the bill, which called for special election of the will of the Legislature with respect to House Bill No. 43. WHY POSLAM HEALS SKINS SO QUICKLY
When your body is sick, the first thing your doctor orders is REST. And when your skin is sick, it, too, must rest. That is the way Poslam works. A very gentle, soothing, healing ointment for skin sores, itching, burning and smarting right away. Then the gentle, wonderful healing ointment for Poslam begins to work. With the irritation gone, the skin at once begins to heal in a few days. Poslam keeps skin healthy. (Advertisement.)

STREET

A vertical, high-contrast, black and white image showing a textured surface, possibly a book cover or endpaper. The texture is characterized by numerous fine, parallel lines running vertically. Along the right edge, there is a series of white circular marks, resembling punch holes or decorative elements. The overall appearance is that of a close-up, high-resolution scan of a physical object.

Predicts Combine With Bay Cities in Legislature.

Including a warning of danger in the city business relations with the interior counties, D. M. Reynolds, director of research of the First National and Los Angeles Trust and Savings Association, president of the Los Angeles Commercial Board yesterday said that there is a movement on the part of the cities of Southern California and throughout the San Joaquin Valley to combine legislative forces against Los Angeles to compel the Legislature to be called by the Governor to consider the question of reapportionment so that San Francisco and the bay cities will be represented and that through re-apportionment, the city of Los Angeles will be deprived of its share in its excess water power. Being in the high Sierras for the benefit of the agricultural lands of the rest of the State.

REASONS FOR MOVE.

"This movement was brought about for the following reasons: "In 1910 the power company serving the Southern California back country, the Los Angeles Edison, had 15,000 horsepower. This territory now requires 40,000 horsepower for service, and within five years 67,000 horsepower will be required.

"Two years ago that company had some 30,000 undeveloped horsepower in the Mono Lake and other territory, and the state of California, under the Los Angeles aqueduct bill in Congress gave to the Los Angeles power bureau the control of the some 25,000 horsepower in the Mono Lake area, in which to file water rights and four years additional control over those water rights. This act of Congress gave the Los Angeles power company the right to use the horsepower to the interior country.

LAW WITHDRAWN.
 "Also, under this bill, the power bureau induced the Federal Reclamation Service to withdraw certain lands from the public domain to the interior counties, out of their original total of nearly 50,000 horsepower. This withdrawal leaves 20,000 horsepower of undeveloped water, and of that Los Angeles is now condemning some 15,000 horsepower. This leaves only 5,000 horsepower to be developed and leaving to the interior counties an insufficient future power supply—this is the spirit of the fact that we are now attempting to develop more than 250,000 horsepower capable of being developed along the equatorial belt of the world. The power throughout the High Sierra as far north as the Hetch

The interior counties assert we have overreached ourselves, and are preparing to lay data before the farm bureau, the business and political organizations of Central and Northern California—this to the detriment of the business interests of Los Angeles.

"It is not going to do us any good simply to state that the plans of the city of Los Angeles will not harm other territory."

Woman Brought Here After Shooting Brother-in-Law Near Acton.

Mrs. E. J. Platz, 36 years old, wife of a rancher near Acton, yesterday shot and killed her brother-in-law, Ernest Platz, 36 years of age, after a desperate struggle with the man to keep, she says, from being assaulted by him in her own home.

Mrs. Platz used a shotgun, the charge hitting her brother-in-law

According to Mrs. Platz, the attempt by her brother-in-law to "even" with her husband, Earnest Platz, whose ranch adjoins that of his brother, lived in the house with her for several years. She said two weeks ago, according to the woman's story, the brothers quarreled about the manner in which Earnest cut some hay for her husband.

"They had a fight, and my husband made him get back on the machine and cut the hay." Mrs. Platts said last night. "Yesterday, while my husband was in the fields, Earnest started an argument with me. He grew furious and said, 'Ed will pay for that.' Then he attacked me. We fought all over the place. He bit me on the neck and tore my hair out. The head of the horse thought it was my husband. I was getting the best of him, so he ran to the room upstairs. When I got there I shot him."

PEACE OR THE SWORD?

Shall it be peace or the sword? The question has been fairly posed and Japan can no longer evade the issue. Is justice among peoples to be a universally established principle, or is it to be measured by metes and bounds, its domain limited to certain lands and restricted portions of the seven seas?

Never has a more momentous issue been raised among all the peoples of the world. Justice knows no race, color nor creed. Liberty and equality are its handmaidens. Where it reigns reason triumphs over the brute. Where justice is subordinated to might, equality is unknown; men are either tyrants or slaves.

President Harding's call for an international conference to discuss limited armaments has stirred the heart of the world. By the responses received we shall be able to separate the just from the unjust. The nations who really desire peace will respond freely and without reservation; while those who hesitate, who seek peace with reservations, will stand exposed before the world as plotting to maintain a reign of force or arms.

By taking the initiative in calling a new peace conference President Harding has been true to the highest traditions of our republic. He has proclaimed to all the nations that the American people, while now possessing the strongest government in the world, will only use their forces to secure the triumph of just causes. America now possesses sufficient wealth to build a greater navy and equip a more powerful army than any other nation; yet our President is calling the principal nations of the world to a peace conference. America is in a position to enforce what she considers her rights in relation with other governments and peoples by arms; but America is asking five other nations to join her in a conference where the rights of the weakest shall be as inviolable as those of the strongest.

What will be the answer of the other nations?

France was the first to respond officially to the call, although Great Britain gave immediate unofficial acceptance. Italy and China have welcomed the invitation. Japan has maintained for four days a sullen silence. Cables from London assert that Great Britain will be able to bring her Far Eastern ally with her to the conference; but it is apparent that Japan will take her place at the council table, if at all, with mental reservations.

It looks as though the Japanese coon has been smoked out. Her imperial government will be no longer able to enslave other peoples under the guise of protecting them. The term of her secret agreements, forced on weaker neighbors, is drawing to an end. She, too, must recognize that there is a higher power in the world than Japanese interests, that the era of world conquest is definitely closed.

Before a policy of disarmament can be carried into effect the status of the different governments and peoples in the Pacific area must be definitely fixed; the questions which threaten the peace of nations must be settled. Disarmament can come only when every nation with interests in the Pacific shall have agreed to settlements based on justice. The Japanese occupation of Siberia must be fully explained. If it cannot be justified the Japanese troops must be withdrawn. The secret agreements which Japan has forced the Chinese government to accept by threats of military invasion must be made public documents and, if they are unfair to China, they must be cancelled.

Every other nation must yield to an equal scrutiny. We must be prepared to justify our continued direction of the affairs of the Philippine Islands or be prepared to grant them unlimited independence. Great Britain and France must permit an equal examination of the rights which they exercise in the Far East, and, if they are unjust, they must be surrendered.

Justice for one must mean justice for all. As long as tyranny exists in any part of the world, while there are anywhere masters and slaves, enduring peace is impossible. If the Pacific area is to be freed from the menace of armed conflicts, there must be no favored nations; the strong must not be permitted longer to bully the weak; the sovereignty of a people must be measured by no other.

Japan is the one nation that hesitates, and Japan must now decide whether she is willing to submit her claims to a just tribunal or prefers to maintain them by force of arms.

If it is to be war, if Japan is determined to follow in the footsteps of Germany and Austria, to put her trust not in justice but in the Japanese sword, then let us be prepared to meet the issue. The people of the United States will not consent to continue to live under the menace of a Japanese invasion; and we of California desire to make our protest now. God knows that we are not seeking a new war, that we are willing to make sacrifices so long as they do not involve justice and honor, to promote and preserve the peace of the Pacific area. But war itself is preferable to the continual menace of war. The free peoples of Europe lived for a generation under the shadow of the German sword before the first blow was struck. We of the United States, particularly of the Pacific Coast, do not care to repeat their experience.

President Harding has called all the Allied nations to the conference as an evidence of our honesty of purpose, of our desire to secure only just solutions of the problems affecting the Far East. If Japan refuses to take a part in that conference, or to abide by its decisions, then the government and the people of the United States will feel they are within their right to ask the other nations to join with us in supporting justice with a might that Japan will be compelled to respect. If the lesson of the fate of Germany has been lost on Japan, if another war must be fought before all the peoples of the world will consent to renounce force and live at amity with their neighbors, let there be again a unity of the free peoples against the last of the world tyrannies.

The Times devoutly trusts that such an alternative will not be forced upon us. We believe that the Japanese statesmen possess wisdom and vision sufficient to convince them of the folly and the injustice of the continued dominion of the sword. But the issue has now been joined. We have put our hand to the plow and there can be no turning back until the rule of justice in the whole of the Pacific area is unchallenged. If it cannot be established now without recourse to arms, it is equally certain that it could not be established next year or ten years hence. War has its horrors, but those of continued tyranny and injustice are worse.

OUR LATEST SOVIETS.
Los Angeles was hardly prepared for an attempt on the part of the teachers to semi-sovietize our public-school system. They seem to have misunderstood the meaning of the movement, in which The Times heartily joined, to pay to the teachers an adequate wage, a just compensation for the duties they perform and the sacrifices they make in one of the most important branches of the public service. Some of them are unduly puffed up over the consideration that has been shown to them.

No teachers in the country are better paid than those of Los Angeles. In no city have they been held in higher regard; and it comes to The Times as something of a shock to find that an association, purporting to speak in their name, demands of the new Board of Education that:

The teaching body be officially recognized as the integral part of the school administration; that it be regularly utilized in an advisory capacity; THAT IT FUNCTION THROUGH A SYSTEM OF TEACHER-COUNCILS represented at the conferences of the superintendent's staff; AND THAT IT HAVE POWERS OF INITIATIVE, COUNSEL, AND REVIEW. . . . NO CHANGES OF POLICY OR ADMINISTRATIVE PLAN SHOULD BECOME OPERATIVE UNTIL THE TEACHER-COUNCILS HAVE BEEN NOTIFIED AND HAVE HAD OPPORTUNITY TO BE HEARD IN CRITICISM OF THE PROPOSED CHANGES.

To establish "teacher-councils" is to encroach on the frontiers of sovietism. The teachers seek to arrogate to themselves the duties that devolve upon the superintendent and the Board of Education. The demands which they are making have a resemblance to those which led three years ago to a policemen's strike in Boston. Although a majority of them are doubtless unaware of the fact, they have adopted a policy which has served to bring into disrepute the American Federation of Labor.

It is probably true that a majority of the teachers who have approved that ultimatum believe that they are taking part in a movement to better the administration of educational affairs. But The Times is convinced that they have been misled by a few agitators who are secretly allied with the teachers' union. When they demand the abolition of the standing committees of the Board of Education they are attempting to usurp the rights of elective officials. To establish such a principle in the public service, to place the appointees of the school board above the board itself would be to admit sovietism unadorned into the administration of our public schools. We were hardly prepared for such an outburst of intellectual anarchy in so enlightened a community as Los Angeles.

That term "teacher-councils" is not to be found in any standard American dictionary. It has been coined since 1918; and it was first used in Russia under Bolshevism. That such a term should be used to designate organizations existing among the teachers of Los Angeles is an indication that an investigation would not be out of place to determine how many radicals are employed as teachers in the public schools of the city.

Under our present laws education is compulsory. All parents are compelled to send their children to either public or private schools. Every person possessing either real or personal property in the school district is obliged to contribute to the maintenance of the public school system. Are we to be compelled by law to send our children to a classroom where the instructor is an exponent of sovietism? Is there any good reason why either the parents or the members of the Board of Education should submit to the self-imposed tyranny of teacher-councils?

On what do these teacher-councils base their authority? By what right do they seek to dictate to the Board of Education the manner in which the schools shall be run? And it has come to our ears that some of the teachers boast that they elected enough pledged members of the board to assure an official recognition of the teacher-councils. But The Times refuses to believe that the majority of the members of the school board will be guilty of such a betrayal of the public. The teachers are engaging in the worst form of political activity; they are seeking to inject industrial politics into the administration of the public schools.

Not content with the wage increases which they have received, the teachers seek to sovietize the school department. We are inclined to believe that, on the part of a great majority, it is an act of ignorance rather than of evil intent. They have lost their names to something that they do not fully comprehend. If they would stop to consider the effect of the introduction of that principle into all branches of the public service they would quickly discover how ridiculous their pretensions are. We repeat that it is exactly what the policemen of Boston did, the thing that led to the policemen's strike and made Calvin Coolidge Vice-President of the United States.

A fit return for this presumption on the part of the teacher-councils—an objectionable as all the other hyphenated words—is an investigation on the part of the school board to discover the tainted source of this radical propaganda.

ARKANSAS NEWSINGS.
Even though you hate a man, don't knock him. No matter how ornery you may be, he usually has enough friends to take his part and gain you a reputation as a knocker. What has become of the old-fashioned hog who explained his overeating by saying that he didn't want to die in debt to his stomach?

And what has become of the old-fashioned eugenic marriage system, that was going to make an ideal stock farm out of this nation? When a wife tells her husband that she simply MUST have ten dollars she is in all hope that maybe she can make him come across with a dollar.

There is one thing about an automobile we admire greatly: It doesn't shed hair in the spring.

ELKSTEIN RELATIVITY.

BY ALMA WHITTAKER.

As a female of the species I can't be expected to understand the inner subtleties of Elkins, but I took one of them on a honeymoon trip through foreign lands not so very long ago and I gleaned a few illuminating sidelights.

I had to admit that marrying into the Elks involved a certain amount of ecstacy and many tangible privileges, even if I wasn't admitted to any inner holy of holies.

For instance, when we boarded the S.S. Sonoma at San Francisco we didn't seem to be anybody in particular. We hadn't been clever enough to secure the royal suite and the ship was crowded with enough nabobs to fill the captain's table twice over. The captain's table in the dining saloon being the place de rendezvous of long voyagers. As we all stood in line for our places at table our chances of being placed among the elite were very meager. But, hark! the purser was an Elk. So was my spouse, "Hello, Bill!" The effect was instantaneous. We were immediately somebody very particular, indeed. The captain's table? Sure. What? Had they given us that stater cabin? "Tut, tut. It should be changed at once."

Needless to say I was very much impressed. Oh, very. We enjoyed the ecstacy of green carry all that voyage. The couple of Australian gentlemen, two or three colonels, half a dozen captains, American naval attaches—but no one to take precedence of an Elk and his spouse. And when later we were held up in quarantine in Sydney Harbor and clean linen became a precious asset, towels strictly rationed and all that sort of thing, behold two extra daily towels for us—just because we had an Elk in the family.

And later in Hongkong we craved the privilege of changing our plans. Could we take an earlier boat? Quite impossible. Waiting list of several hundred. Simply out of the question. But my Elk recognized no defeat. He simply haunted the ship-plate office till he found a fellow-Elk, a nice young fellow from San Francisco, and once he was assured of a girl in Los Angeles. Nothing was impossible after that. We automatically took precedence of that waiting list.

It was the same in Manila, where the Elks' Club is the most impressive building. That club was ours. Strangers? Never. Several hundred Elks stood ready to play host. And, may they know how, I and my spouse had deliberately set out to impress me with his masculine superiority he could not have achieved it more stylishly. I was positively dumb with awe and admiration.

And he worked it again on the U.S.S. Ecuador from Hongkong to Japan. The blessed captain was an Elk, too. That ship was crowded to the gunwales with distinguished passengers, but they hadn't anything on us. Anyone who has traveled knows the supreme value of a friend at court—and when he is a fellow-Elk on a ship—well, so I admit. I do understand the inner subtleties; but I gained a very satisfactory Grand Exalted Ruler feeling that has never yet worn off.

Arrived in Japan, we had that formal orphan feeling—until we met a couple of resident Elks. After that we were visiting royalty. The Vanderbilt party just lagged along behind at I promptly began exhibiting modesty—it didn't seem quite nice to put on all the dog the occasion seemed to warrant.

It was the same on the homeward-bound Siberia Maru. An American purser—and an Elk. One has the patronizing attitude of gentle sympathy for the Elks' travelers. Nothing but international distinction can gain them the semblance of equality with Elks. Premier Hara of Japan was on that boat, so were numerous distinguished British nabobs, so were Russian patriots, Japanese nationalists, Indian financiers, all sorts of cheeses from Shanghai, but when it came to special privilege my Elk was always a step ahead.

What is probably why Elks' ladies are always so strong in domestic wifehood. Haven't you noticed it? The Grand Exalted Rulerliness just pervades the Elks. There cannot possibly be such a thing as a hen-pecked Elk.

I myself am thoroughly docile. When my lord is in his Elks mood there isn't any question who is the boss in our family. And all this time I have caught myself saying: "Yes, dear," "certainly, dear," "thank you, dear," with a meekness which I can only hope is becoming. There must be thousands of wives just like me in this town today, just owing gentle docility. But it can't be good for the men—even if they are Elks. It may be good for us. I hope so. But it just shows there is a good deal to be learned from the theory of relativity, even if we women don't quite understand it.

FOUNDATION OF MORALS.

We are going to have a better moral tone.

When young men again put the word "virtue" in the place now occupied by "vamp."

When young girls look to a youth's character before they look to his car.

When the risqué story is banished from the mixed company at least.

When modesty supplants style.

When jazz is relegated to the jungle from whence it came.

When the "animal" dances are recognized for what they really are, and the dance again becomes the poetry of motion instead of a hop, skip and jump.

When we stop confusing "smartness" with intellect and cleverness with brains and ability.

When parents set a real example and retain control of their sons and daughters.

When we stop trying to make a "front" and living for the impression upon other people who don't care anyway and come back to life with in our means and life for our own families—the God-fearing, God-fearing, soul-satisfying life which we all love best down in our hearts.

Which alone brings true happiness and contentment.—[Knockville Journal and Tribune]

RIPPLING RHYMES.

POOR OLD NEBRASKA.

Nebraska's eyes are tearful, there's sorrow in her marts; her sons pretend they're cheerful, but they have aching hearts. Oh, still her hags may fatten, her stiers do passing well, from Hastings to Odell; she still may harvest glory through fresh and salted meat and live in song and story by raising corn and wheat; her hards may gain the bacon, her hangers bring back health, but Bryan has forsaken that sad-eyed commonwealth. There other living wonders may dance around and sing, and with their verbal thunders make all the weather; the state may always nourish strong men whose aims are high, boy orators may flourish and fade away and die; and Warwicks off may ramble about the pleasant scene, and commoners may gambol upon the Lincoln green; the future is uncharted, we know not what may be, but Bryan has departed, alas and hully chee! No home's so well defended as has no vacant chair, no sock so well attended, but one dead lamb is there. From York to Weeping Water Nebraska feels bereaved, and every son and daughter is sore and tender; make the bitter mixture and say the fact's a crime, for William seemed a fixture, a landmark for all time. The altars all are shaken and rent the temple's dome, for Bryan has forsaken his old Nebraska home. WALT MASON.

DROLL STORIES.

He Didn't Care.

Supreme Court Justice Kapper was a friend of the late Senator McCarren, former Brooklyn Democratic boss, and told the following story at a recent Democratic dinner at the Hotel Bossert:

"I was at breakfast with the late Senator McCarren at the Clarendon Hotel," said Justice Kapper, "when a man excitedly rushed in and said that Judge Dowling had just died."

"Blifting unreasonably from one foot to the other, the man finally blurted out, 'I think I would like to take his hour ago,' replied the Senator.

"I have no objections," said the Senator, "if the undertaker has none."—[Brooklyn Eagle]

Mind Cure.

Dr. Simon Flexner, head of the famous Rockefeller Institute, said at a dinner in Philadelphia:

"Don't be surprised at the faith cures you hear about. Even in legitimate medicine faith plays a large part."

"A friend of mine treated an old Manyank woman for typhoid fever. At each visit he put his thermometer in her mouth to take her temperature. She improved, and finally a day came when my friend could dispense with his temperature taking. That day he merely prescribed and departed."

"But he hadn't got far from the house when the old woman's daughter ran after him and called him back."

"Mother's much worse," she said. "My friend went back to the old woman. She looked at him reproachfully from her pillow and meant: 'Doctor, why didn't ye gimme the high end me longest today?' The doctor more good than all the rest of yer trash."—[Washington Star]

Col. H. H. Haverly. The old-time military magnate, once conceived the idea of having Madam Patti for a concert tour under his own direction and called on her to make a contract. The magnate, him most cordial and the conversation went along swimmingly until they began to talk terms.

"May I ask your terms for fifty nights, Madam Patti?" said Col. Haverly.

"Four thousand dollars a night, or $200,000 for fifty nights, one-half to be deposited upon signing of the contract," said Patti glibly.

Col. Haverly swallowed with difficulty two or three times and then managed to speak.

"Two hundred thousand for fifty nights?" he exclaimed. "Heavens, no! That is just four times what we pay the President of the United States!"

"Well," said Patti, "why don't you get the President to sing for you?"—[Detroit News]

AMBASSADORIAL SUCCESS.

Myron F. Herrick, Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor, is returning to Paris, American Ambassador, a post he filled with quite unparalleled success before.

Mr. Herrick at a dinner at Washington was congratulated on this success. He answered modestly that it was due to his sympathetic understanding of the French tongue and people. Then he told a story.

"Too many ambassadors and ministers," he said, "are like the man who was appointed to Constantinople because he'd subscribed half a million to the last campaign."

"I know I'll do well in Turkey," the new Ambassador said, "for once I passed through Constantinople on a Cook's tour and met the famous Turkish banker, Haffs Pasha."

"I think I've met Haffs," said another man. "He wears a fez, doesn't he?"

"No," said the new Ambassador, "he's clean shaven."—[Detroit Free Press]

If all the man angels have wings our guess is that heaven is full of traveling men.

One of the strangest things in this world is how few widows expect Congress to help them.

As we understand it, a free verse poet doesn't receive any approval until he writes about fertilizer and intestines.

Considering the other things the whale had eaten that day, probably Jonah would have preferred solitary confinement to being swallowed by a whale.

Another reason why we hate to see a lady go in swimming with her thimble on is because we dislike affected modesty.

PRESIDENT IS DEVOTED ELK.
G. O. P. National Committee Treasurer Candidate of Chief Executive.
One of the most devoted members of the Elks is President Harding. In joining Chicago Lodge, No. 4, recently, Fred G. Upham, treasurer of the Republican National Committee, said he regarded himself as Mr. Harding's candidate into the order.
"I had hardly gotten into the campaign last year," said Mr. Upham, "when Senator Harding, as he then was, came to me one day and said: 'Fred, I don't understand how a man who loves the American flag as you do has gone this long without joining the Elks. You had better get in.'"
"Oh, I just know that in my husband's voice," remarked one demure little Missouri lady in a pink sports suit, as she voiced praise for several octaves above the rest. "He is having such a good time." And she beamed wifely approval while she placidly slipped her foot over the top of the shoe.
Altogether, that tea arbor may be said to have been a most successful one, and it will be open until the last Elk has gone home, tired, but radiant.

Grand Exalted Ruler and Sated Successor Are Given Artistic Honor Tokens.
Among the scores of badges of different varieties proudly displayed this week by Elks are two which have attracted the admiration of everyone. Wonderfully jeweled on a base of fine gold and platinum, each of the badges speaks eloquently of the esteem with which the Elks of the United States regard their Past Grand Exalted Ruler, William M. Abbott, and William W. Mountain, the unopposed candidate elected Tuesday as Grand Exalted Ruler.
The jeweled insignia given Mr. Abbott is a masterpiece of designing for the committee on presentation. Studding the figures "1921" are thirty full cut diamonds set in platinum. "E. P. O. BOARD RESPONSIBLE.
Miss Jessie York, one of the two senior members of the board, stated that it is the policy of the present organization to meet with the teachers and consult with them on any matter affecting the schools but that the board would always be responsible for the maintenance of the educational system and that it therefore must retain the administrative hand.
Robert A. Odell, board member, stated that he believed the Board of Education will welcome any progressive move to further the work of the public schools.
"But, there is a course between reactionism and radicalism that we must pursue for the successful operation of the schools," he said. "I believe that the board is a pretty evenly balanced body and will not do anything that has a radical tinge. Such a plan as explained in The Times of this morning would have to be considered at great length before action could be taken on it. I have not had time to study the published plan and the official document has not been brought to my attention. Asserted Sale of Rail Passes Causes Arrest.
Charged with having obtained money under false pretences by selling railroad passes, Frank W. Waltman, 46 years of age, a real estate operator, was lodged in the City Jail yesterday by Detective Sergeant Coby and Assistant Special Agent Thomas of the Southern Pacific. Mr. Waltman denied the charge placed against him.
The ex-railroad man was traced by the police from Philadelphia several months ago, according to the police, had been a clerk in the offices of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad. The passes said to have been sold by Mr. Waltman came from the Philadelphia office of the road where he was employed. Some of the blank forms were found in his possession when he was taken into custody.
The ex-railroad man was traced by the police from an advertisement offering for sale "a way" to get East. The advertisement was investigated and the arrest followed. The police declared following the arrest that three persons who had purchased the passes had been located by them.

Police Arrest Man Who Reports Robbery, and Two Other Suspects.
Paul M. Cotham, 20 years of age, was arrested early yesterday morning by police-detectives of University Station after he had reported to the police that he had been held up and robbed by three bandits. With him the police took into custody Jose Stephens and John R. Morgan. All three prisoners are charged with suspicion of highway robbery.
According to the police, Mr. Co-

SABER-TOOTHED TIGERS HIT TEETHING INFANTS.

Walt McCredie Squats on the Bench and Sadly Sees His Ball Team
Go the Toboggan Route.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

A partly bald person sat on the Portland bench yesterday and saw his teething infants chewed up by our saber-toothed Tigers.

Walt McCredie won his managerial spurs so long ago that they are rusty, but he is strong for juvenile parts on the field. In the natural course of events Vernon again bumped the baby Beavers, this time by a count of 7 to 5. Apparently Mac's bona fide tailenders are slipping, as yesterday they tied the score only once, as against three knots placed in the pastime the day previous. But they can't slip much. They are as tight in the cellar as the kernel is in a pecan.

Coleman stuck around for four rounds, and his most noteworthy achievement was whiffing Truck Hannah in the second with a guy on base. He was given a hand when he trimmed Truck's wicks, that being deemed quite an achievement in these parts.

Starting the fifth McCredie shot at the Tigers a freshly-fledged slinger called Quisenberry, by-product of an agricultural college, and whose name suggests one of Luther Burbank's experiments. Quisenberry carried out the general idea by giving our boys the raspberry. Mr. Quisenberry's boy looks so young that he ought to get his first safety razor about Christmas after next. Before he started to pitch you wondered why McCredie didn't dress him in rompers. Little socklets that left the legs bare and a Lord Fauntleroy collar.

but appearances were deceiving. Somewhere inside his shirt sleeve the kid carried the arm of a blacksmith. Did he pitch? Does a fiddle, or a flier? What the Tigers didn't do to him would fill an almanac.

DRIVES IN PAIR.
Charley Gorman drove in two in the second, after a double by Stumpy Edwards, and Alcock's single and stolen base.

The Beavers broke loose in the third. Young walked, and went to third on Krut's single. Two out when Cox slouted to the left field boards. Two counted, and Alcock's low relay to cut off Krut at the plate, escaped between Hannah's feet. Cox, rounding third, headed for the plate. Truck didn't leave his position, but allowed Locker to beat him. The judges gave the ball to the Beavers. Gorman's double and Alcock's single and stolen base.

These things aid in keeping the Chalmers out of the repair shop. They make for lower maintenance and replacement charges.

All of which makes the Chalmers an exceedingly sound investment. It is a car which confirms the good judgment of any owner.

May we prove Chalmers superiority to you?

Swim? Say, They Eat It Alive.

Water Go-Fasts Direct from Old Eli.
The Yale swimming team, which arrived in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon, taxied to the L.A.C. and immediately dove into the club tub to take its first swim with the L.A.C. team tonight in a thrilling and one-sided contest, with Yale promising to be on the bacon side. Below (left) Ed Binney, who does the 50-yard dash in some scandalous time, and (right) Lorrin Thurston, who doesn't waste any time in setting through the longer distances. It is predicted that several records will get an awful run for their money when the two teams meet tonight.

YALE MERMEN TRY POOL.

Old Eli's Swimmers in Practice for Clash With L.A.C. Paddlers.

The Yale varsity swimmers breeched into Los Angeles yesterday afternoon and immediately adjourned to the Los Angeles Athletic Club pool to give their fins a little practice slip. Coach Kipphut sent his charges through their stunts in a short but snappy workout. Old Eli's swimmers look good and, judging by past performances as well as appearances, they should have a easy time with the L.A.C. aquatic artists in the meet slated for the club tub tonight.

The workout yesterday consisted chiefly of starting and turning practice. Coach Kipphut put particular stress on turning, as the local pool has a reputation for back-washing.

One of the most interesting events tonight will be the 50-yard dash. Ed Binney of Yale has been peering at the local pool has a reputation for back-washing.

MILBURN BACK WITH CUP.

NEW YORK, July 13.—The Olympic team, arriving today from England, brought a number of prominent personages in the sporting world, among whom were Deyoung Milburn, captain, and Louis Stoddard, of the victorious American polo team; William T. Tilden, world's singles tennis champion; Zeno Shimidzu, the Japanese tennis star, and eighteen Oxford and Cambridge athletes.

Capt. Milburn carried the coveted International polo cup under his arm. He and Stoddard praised the sportsmanship of the Englishmen. "They were great," said Milburn. "We shall never forget their kind treatment."

Tilden appeared worn and fatigued. He is recovering from a two-week illness. Both Tilden and Shimidzu praised the ability of Miss Suzanne Lenglen, the French star. "It will be a great treat for Americans to see her play," they said.

G. S. Rudd of Oxford, the Olympic 400-meter champion, will be captain of the Oxford-Cambridge team that meets Yale and Harvard at Boston July 15. The other members are H. M. Abraham, W. R. Sea-grove, H. B. Stallard, H. B. Gregory, W. G. Tatham, E. S. Burns, N. F. Burt, H. Waterhouse and L. F. Farridge of Cambridge, and G. N. C. Ford, W. R. Milligan, S. E. C. Ingham, A. L. Reese, N. A. McKinnis, E. J. Dickinson, M. C. Nokes and W. S. Kent-Hughes of Oxford.

Abraham, a ten-second 100-yard man, is the interspersal champion of England. Stallard in the last English championships ran a mile in 4m. 14.4s. Rudd, Tatham, Milburn and Stallard of the relay team hold the world's relay record for two miles, set last year at the Penn relay, 1m. 50.4s.

Nokes, the English interspersal hammer-throwing champion, holds a record of 160 ft. 5in. The party will go to Princeton University for the training period.

With an array of trophies up that would put Captain Kidd and his gang of pirates to shame and many hundreds of dollars up as money in the various events, the Vernon Gun Club's sixth annual registered trap-shooting tournament will get under way today with a practice shoot.

For the last three days, visiting shooters from Oregon, Washington, Northern California and Arizona have been arriving in town in readiness for the shoot, considered the greatest of all trap-gun programs put on each year in Southern California.

A. W. Bruner, president and founder of the Vernon club has been more than busy arranging things and no doubt the shoot will be conducted along the same efficient lines that has made Vernon famous throughout the shooting world.

Today's practice event will consist of 100 targets in four relays of twenty-five targets each.

Tomorrow, the registered shooting will start. The program tomorrow will be at 200 targets in eight events of twenty-five birds each.

PERISCOPE IS STAKE WINNER.

Straight Heats.

Dan Aubrey, Rank Outsider, is First in 2:17 Trot.

Walter K. Proves Best in the 2:10 Pacing Race.

TOLEDO (O.) July 13.—Periscope, owned and driven by J. L. Dodge of Lexington, Ky., won the 2:05 trot, the Maumes Stake, purse $1000, the feature of today's Grand Circuit card, while Peter Coley got the place. In the second heat he stopped in 2:03 1/2, equaling his record at Cleveland last week.

Dan Aubrey, a rank outsider, owned by Farley Mitchell of Findlay, O., and driven by Vic Fleming, won the Turkeyfoot $1000 stake for 2:17 trotters after four heats. Peter Bieier, the favorite, won the first heat, but drew second place in others.

PAYS BIG.
When Dan Aubrey won the second heat, a $2 ticket in the maumels paid $177.45, the longest price of the local meet. Alexander B. then came on and took the third heat, but when the best winners raced in off Dan Aubrey won easily.

Walter K., driven by Sep Palla, won the 2:10 pace.

Betty Thornton captured the 2:15 trot. The summaries follow:

HEAD SCISSORS MAY DO WORK.

Champion Miller to Rely on it Tomorrow Night.

Challenger Thye Will Depend on Double Wrist.

Wrestlers Fit for Match at the Big Stadium.

When Walter Miller, holder of the world's middleweight wrestling championship, clashes tomorrow night with Ted Thye, the Portland challenger, it will be a question whether the head scissors or the double-wrist lock will open in defense for one of the principals. The former hold is Miller's best bet, while the latter is Thye's favorite bread-winner.

This will be the feature attraction of an athletic program which will be held at the big stadium, the benefit of the Disabled Veterans of the World War, Los Angeles Post No. 1. The profits of the show will be donated to the organization. Capt. J. M. McCaw, well-known sportsman and manager, is sponsoring the affair.

CAN MAKE HEFT.
There is not taking any chances of losing his forfeit money, and he declared he will have little difficulty in making 155 pounds ring-side.

When he arrived in Los Angeles nearly a week ago, Thye weighed slightly over 160 pounds. Yesterday, however, he was just a trifle over the middleweight limit.

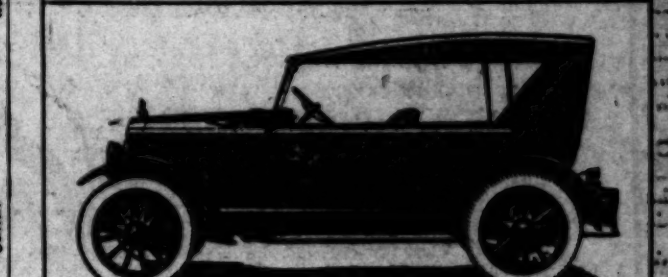

Wrestling followers should see a match that should prove to be the best sport event staged in the city in some time. The northern grappler is determined to beat Miller decisively, cop the title, and settle his summary over the local mat artist for all time. Miller, however, has quite a bit to say as to this, and he is confident that he will stop the visitor in short order.

SHY ON ROAD.
In training for this match Miller has not done much road work, as he felt too much running over the beach sands had a tendency to slow him up in his recent training.

Life has been taking on all of the mat stars at the Los Angeles Athletic Club, and according to those who have followed him through training, Miller is in the best shape of his life.

ESSEX

You Know Essex Excels
But Do You Know Why?

It is because it does not grow old.

Cars two years old and over, are running today as smoothly as when new. They are new in all essential respects. They are free from squeaks and rattles. Body joints have not separated and in the matter of maintenance cost their owners have been practically free.

That is why the coming of an Essex into any neighborhood is soon followed by many others.

Ask any Essex owner about the car. You will understand why such owner enthusiasm, is winning new friends for Essex everywhere.

"Just Try It After 22,000 Miles"

"One ride in my Essex as it stands, after 22,000 miles, will convince anybody that it has as much power, speed, reliability and freedom from noise as when new. Have owned over 7000 good cars costing under $2,000. In Essex I have had the lowest expense I ever had in a car. It cost me $1,735 two years ago, and I wouldn't take $2,500 for it now, if it could not be duplicated."

FILMING "THE ROSARY."

SELIG'S HAS PICKED FINE CAST FOR THE FEATURE.

It looks as though "The Rosary," which Col. W. N. Selig and Sam E. Rock are to make at their East Los Angeles studios, is to be one of the finest pictures turned out this year. Not only are a couple of months to be consumed in the making of the picture, and not only are all possible pains to be taken with the settings and costumes, but a notable cast is to portray the different roles.

Heading the cast are Lewis Stone, Jane Novak, Wallace Beery, Robert Gordon, Eugene Bessner, Dore Davidson, Fomery Canton, Earl Woodruff, Mildred June and Harold Goodwin. Nearly everybody in the picture boasts a stellar reputation.

Director Jerome Storm has been working steadily for three months in preparation. He insisted upon the producers and the director in securing the exact characters for the screen production of Edward E. Ross' stage classic that they have patiently bided their time until they could secure the right artists.

Bernard McConville wrote the continuity of "The Rosary." McConville's work during the past two years has been to produce the screen scenarios of "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," "Mary Pickford's 'The Lord's Prayer' and other productions.

At the Alhambra.

The Alhambra this week offers diversified entertainment. Ralph Connor's thrilling novel, "The Sky Pilot," with David Butler and Colleen Moore, as directed by King Vidor, has been produced. It is the most wholesome of recent screen entertainments. It was filmed amid the beauties of the rugged Canadian Rockies.

Larry Remon, in his new famous comedy, "The Bakery," is another feature of the program. Remon's new production is perhaps the fastest comedy yet shown here.

Elks in Pictures.

Thousands of Elks, guests of Irving C. Thalberg at Universal City, played atmosphere for Lee Moran's forthcoming Universal comedy, "A Mile a Minute." The star was filming a picture last Sunday when the Elks arrived. Several of them manifested a desire to be in the picture. Billy Watson, who is directing the production, lined them up along a course and registered their expressions as the Elks riders peddled down the stretch.

"Are You an Elk?"

Elks are setting the latest music show of the Hi Jinks Revue across the footlights at the Burbank this week, and greeting it with all manifestation of thorough appreciation. The production, "Are You an Elk?" is perhaps the most ambitious and joyous since the first entry of the Hi Jinks company. Al and Lois Bridge, and the host of other picture delight the Elks. The Chorus in glittering gowns pleases both eyes and ears.

Bill at the Hip.

The Hippodrome announces for today and the rest of the week the William Fox production of "Live Wires," with Johnnie Walker and Edna Murphy as the featured players. These two clever young people will be repeating their clever work in "Over the Hill," which just closed a long local engagement. The bill brings Bernice Le Barr and Beaux in a satirical melodious offering, with a capable cast. The Elks and Russell present talk and songs of an eccentric comedy type that will win in favor, and Harry and Helene will be seen in a musical farce, all alone original ideas.

The Melroy Sisters, in an artistic number of fashion, melodies and frolic, and Wilbur and Lyke, in a novel combination of songs, bounds and music, conclude the bill.

Charlie Chaplin, in a new version of one of his most successful comedies, "One A.M.," will be an added feature.

"Woman God Changed."

Still commanding public attention through the discussion of the matter has attracted in intellectual circles during the past month. "The Woman God Changed" is showing its fifth and final week at Grauman's Rialto. This production's success, at its crest, at present, may be predicted. The additional weeks if it were not for the fact that previous contract stipulations since the picture was shown at the Rialto, Sunday, July 17.

Orpheum Announces.

Many inquiries have been received at the Orpheum regarding the time of performance on Thursday evening, the night of the Elks' parade. The Orpheum management announces that the show will start after the parade at that night.

DANCERS UNITE FOR AMERICAN BALLETS.

Under the name of American Ballet Association a number of professional dancers have organized themselves to promote the art of dancing and its kindred and allied arts among American-born artists, according to an announcement issued yesterday from the new association's office at 119 South Figueroa street.

Ernest Belcher is elected general advisor to the organization, and the technical staff are as follows: Anna Holme, general director; Margaret Priest, assistant; Harold Collins, stage manager; Harold Newberry, assistant; Ione Kuhl, musical director, and Catherine Levering, librarian.

The officers of the American Ballet Association are: Lena Baskette, vice-president; and Warren Lee, secretary and treasurer.

The organization aims to become a similar factor in the development of dancing talent in America to the famed Imperial schools in Russia.

ELKS, ACTORS AND PAIS.

Charles L. Gill, Broadwayite, theatrical manager and booker of picture celebrities, is "conventioning" here with the Elks, playing at the new Pantages, and palming around with his old cronies, Roy Atwell, featured player at the Mason, "The Stage Carpenters." Gill's presence is a going ahead at top speed of Atwell, who was tendered a great silver cup and the gaudier for which all Elks are proud, as the first prize at the Lamb's Gambol in New York.

A Regal Scholar.

Little Ben was proud of her older sister, who took honors in college, being valedictorian of her class. "Katherine did it," she informed the neighbors after commencement, "she was Queen Victorian of her class."

FLASHES.

REX INGRAM ENGAGED.

WILL MARRY ALICE TERRY, LEADING LADY.

By Grace Kingsley.

Probably nobody should be surprised, but certainly everybody will be highly interested in the development of the latest romance in film-dom into an engagement to wed.

This romance is that between Rex Ingram, famous Metro director, and maker of "The Four Horsemen," and Alice Terry, the star of that notable production.

The romance is of two years' standing. In fact, it began when Mr. Ingram was casting about for a leading lady to play the difficult role of Marguerite in "The Four Horsemen." Miss Terry, who had been in the picture, had been through her beauty and talents, was decided upon as the ideal heroine for the picture.

Presently the two young people were known to be motoring and dancing together through the great deal, and people were saying that the fascinating Mr. Ingram, who was as well as her own Mr. Ingram, was about to be married.

At the time, however, both denied the report.

The wedding is not to take place for several months according to present plans of the young couple.

Mr. Ingram is to be married to Europe to make pictures, as he has several offers from overseas, but at present he is making a picture at Metro. If he decides to go in the near future, the wedding will, of course, be postponed.

In any case a trip abroad is contemplated for a honeymoon.

Miss Terry is to retire from professional life following her marriage, this being Mr. Ingram's wish.

Mr. Ingram is not yet 30 years old. His "Four Horsemen" is probably the most successful picture of his career.

His latest picture, "The Conquering Power," from the Balzac novel, "Eugenie Grandet," is now in rival in success "The Four Horsemen."

Hal Roach's Beauties.

How the Elks will ever be able to go back to the stadium and see the bathing girls parade held yesterday at the Elks' stadium, Hal Roach supplied a number of peaches some of whom won prizes for beauty. Included were Marie Benson, Ada Mae Vaughn, Marie Vaughn and Aline Blotcher.

Mary Newcomb Returns.

It's been some time since Mary Newcomb has been seen on Elks, so far as Mary Newcomb is concerned. Her smile is missing "em down. Mary Newcomb is the charming leading lady of the Wilkes company at the Majestic, and is playing the snappy lady journalist in "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath."

The other night Miss Newcomb received what might be termed a "dash-note" back from the Elks. A enthusiastic gentleman in black coat and white trousers, who was sitting in the audience.

"De Miss," he said, "I'm only a poor lonely Elk, wandering the wilderness of Los Angeles, and I've been thinking of you for some time. You're the cutest girl I ever saw on the stage. Will you take supper with me this evening? But even if you won't."

Miss Newcomb graciously sent back word: "I'm certainly sorry you're lonely. But as I have to get ready for my picture, I can't go out early for rehearsal tomorrow. I'm afraid I'll have to decline your invitation, with thanks. Also, I like your coat, but, oh I hope not—'Miss Newcomb forever!'"

Society Folk in Films.

Since the film folk have taken possession of the fashionable Long Island and Florida resorts, the smart set has been flocking to the Elks' summer in the picture studios, according to the announcement from John Emerson-Anita Loos Productions.

Mrs. Lydia Hoyt's plunge into filmdom has led a busy and active life. She is now in the picture studios, where she is making a picture, "The Woman God Changed," for the National Comedy. "The Woman God Changed" is being made by its authors, Mr. Emerson and Miss Loos. Among those appearing in the picture are: Vincent H. F. De Frise, Miss Elaine Revalles, who in private life is the daughter of the late Senator, and Miss Jean Meredith, whose first histrionic experience in the Junior League was last year.

Irving Lesser Announces.

No sooner had Irving Lesser stepped off the train from New York than he was met by a group of Elks. He announced that he would throw it into high gear as the distribution of pictures. The Elks' picture, "The Western Pictures Exploitation Company," of which he is the head, is now in the hands of the Elks. The picture is a series of eight five-reel western pictures, which are being distributed by the Elks.

Charles E. Mack represented the Doubleday organization in the transaction.

The first picture of the series is completed and bears the title "Blue Blazes." The cast includes Francella Pilling, Fred J. Gastrock. The story is by Henry McCarty and Leo Meahan.

Harold Lloyd Comes Home.

Harold Lloyd has returned from California, where he spent the summer. He took his company at the beginning of the hot weather to make scenes of his latest comedy.

David Steps to Breathing.

Filming on "Bing-Bang-Boom," David Butler's second feature production, was completed today. The film is now in the hands of the Elks. Butler plans a brief vacation, but he is planning his third picture, "In Walked Jimmy." Fred J. Butler will direct the next picture. Work will commence August 1st at the Brunton studios as headquarters.

Will Distribute Coogan Pictures.

Hot weather and thousands of visitors in Los Angeles have little, if any, effect on the Elks. The Coogan Productions are concerned. Work in preparation for the initial picture is going ahead at top speed. Today an agreement was made between Coogan here, and Irving Lesser, general manager of the Western Pictures Exploitation Company, whereby Mr. Lesser's organization will have complete charge of distribution of the series of Jackie's future photoplays.

This arrangement will not interfere with the Elks' exchange of having a special representative visit the various exchange centers.

ARGUE FOR ACCUSED IN BANK CASE.

Pyle, Conner Have Their Innings; Arguments May be Concluded Today.

Edward J. Pyle, former vice-president of the National Bank and Trust Company of Pasadena, and W. J. Conner, head of the Master Pictures, Inc., jointly charged with having misappropriated the funds of the Pasadena institution, had their innings before a jury in U. S. District Judge Bledsoe's court yesterday.

Byron Hanna addressed the jury in behalf of Mr. Pyle, and Fred Thompson and Capt. W. J. Helms spoke for Mr. Conner. Capt. John D. Frederick will close for Mr. Pyle this morning, and W. Fleet Panner, special prosecutor, will close for the government. The case will go to the jury tomorrow.

Mr. Hanna admitted that his client had done some foolish things, but he denied that he had acted wrongfully. He declared that his client had been the "outraged victim" of the defendant Conner.

Mr. Pyle "had overestimated Conner's ability," he said. "He had worked in the bank for twenty-four years, but he could not match wits with a man like Conner."

"Conner made up his mind that he would cash in on Pyle's regard for him," he continued, "and thus finance his scheme."

STORY OF ELKDOM TOLD.

Angeleno Describes How "Jolly Corks" Founded Great Order.

BY J. W. LYONS.
United States Lodge, No. 1485.

Spencer's place, where they found Mr. McDonald and others.

After hearing the story about the funeral the Jolly Corks had attended, Mr. McDonald suggested that the organization should become a protective and benevolent society, and during the next week or ten days he reached the city to other Jolly Corks, including William Carleton, Mr. Sheppard and Tom Riggs.

BENEVOLENT FEATURE.

Following this, at a meeting of the Jolly Corks held the first week in February, 1918, McDonald formally proposed that the organization be broadened into a benevolent society, and that the name be changed. The suggestion was met with approval of all those present, and Mr. Vivian, who was, as usual, presiding at the meeting, immediately called for a vote on the proposed change.

The work of the committee was actually done by Messrs. Thompson, Bowen and Riggs. They met at Barnum's Museum on Broadway to look over a number of animals, in order to select a suitable name for the order, and there selected the moose and the elk to make a decision between them. The Thompson and Bowen trio favored the moose.

SELECT NAME ELK.

The name Elk was selected and was unanimously recommended by the three committees at the meeting held Feb. 14, 1918. Before leaving England, Mr. Vivian had been identified with the Royal and Antediluvian Order of Buffaloes. The name Elk was suggested by any member of the committee, but at the meeting on February 14 the members present, the following seven voted for the name, Buffalo: Charles A. Vivian, Robert T. Rogers, George M. Asch, Harry Vandemark, Harry Bowditch, F. C. Langhorne and E. M. Platt.

COMMITTEE CHOSEN.

Mr. Vivian, as presiding officer at the meeting, then declared the name Elk officially adopted and appointed the following as a committee to prepare and submit a ritual: George F. McDonald, George M. Asch, William Carleton, Thomas Gratian Riggs and himself. From that time on the Jolly Corks ceased to exist and all of the members called themselves Elk although some could be obligated as such until the adoption of the ritual.

UPON THE COMPLETION OF THE RITUAL.

Upon the completion of the ritual, Mr. McDonald, and Riggs, about February 26, to read it over. It contained a considerable part of the ritual of the Buffalo which Mr. Vivian had written into the proposed Elk ritual. This document, as Mr. McDonald said, was the approval of the members of the committee, but just as they were about to adopt it, Mr. McDonald suggested that before doing so the manuscript be submitted to Henry F. O'Neill, a local writer, who was identified with the proposed new Elk organization.

RITUAL REWRITTEN.

Mr. McDonald's suggestion having met with the approval of the others, the ritual manuscript was taken by him to Mr. O'Neill, who was requested to rewrite it, and he did so. Mr. O'Neill, who is now a member of the Jolly Corks, wrote the general ritual, and Riggs wrote the ritual for the initiation ceremony. This was the ritual approved by the committee and formally adopted at a meeting held by the prospective members about March 10. Thus the ritual written by the O'Neill brothers became the first ritual used by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

EVERYTHING WAS SATISFACTORY AND

happened within the new organization, and Vivian was selected to be the presiding officer of the new, named order, the title of the presiding officer then being Right Honorable Prime. In the meantime Mr. Vivian had signed a contract through the theatrical agency of Thompson & Riggs, and this took him to Philadelphia to fill an engagement of several weeks.

RECEIVE NO RESPONSE.

Mr. Vivian was notified of the time for the next proposed meeting of the Elks, at which it was intended that the members in accordance with the ritual requirements and select and install the officers, but it is said no response was received from him to any of the many notifications sent him of the meeting.

MR. VIVIAN BECAME PRESENT.

At this meeting William Lloyd Bowen first obligated himself under the provisions of the ritual, and then in turn obligated George W. Thompson and all of the others present. Mr. Thompson was then elected as Right Honorable Prime instead of Mr. Vivian, and was inducted into office as the first presiding officer of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. This was in May, 1918.

ON LEARNING OF THE ELECTION OF MR.

Thompson, instead of himself as head of the lodge, Mr. Vivian became greatly incensed and severely criticized the members for their action in electing the organization, during his absence and electing another instead of himself as the Right Honorable Prime.

APPLICATION REJECTED.

However, at a meeting held about three weeks later, on June 14, 1918, Mr. Vivian made application for membership in the lodge, but was Miss Lucille Rickson, Goldwyn Star.

THE executive committee, Motley H. Flint, chairman, of the B.P.O.E., yesterday authorized public performance of the "first-night" production of the musical comedy, "The Woman Hater," which will be presented, with the assistance of sixteen motion-picture artists, at the Ambassador, next Saturday evening.

LEADER DIES.

Mr. Vivian died of pneumonia in Leadville, Colo., March 20, 1930, after a short life of many theatrical vicissitudes, ranging from touring with his own company to being stranded in Denver. His grave, unmarked save for a message scratched with some hard instrument in a pine board at its head, rested undisturbed for a number of years.

CHARITY RECORD OF ELKS SHOWN.

Bay City and Pueblo Disasters Brought Speedy Aid.

Fate Gave Abbott Leading Role in Crisis.

About Twelve Million Given by Antlered Order.

Belling the reputation usually borne by figures the report of Grand Secretary Fred C. Robinson on charity statistics presented to the grand lodge sessions of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks is full of heart interest in showing the humanitarian work of the brotherhood, especially in times of great need.

To the lot of William M. Abbott, retiring Grand Exalted Ruler, has fallen the duty of twice being a big factor in extending the aid of the order to calamities and disasters. Through his prompt action, reflecting the will of the national order, Mr. Abbott has demonstrated that the B.P.O.E. does not wait for an appeal in living up to its name of being the greatest patriotic organization in America.

When the great disaster befell San Francisco in April, 1906, Abbott was Exalted Ruler of San Francisco Lodge No. 3, and the work that he and his brother Elks did for the distressed city was the first of the kind that sent his name to all corners of Elkdom. Through none of his own seeking he was on the path which ended in the highest position of the order.

AIDS PUBLIC.

It is a rather striking coincidence that at the end of his term another American city should be swept almost out of existence by flood and fire. When news came of the disaster to Pueblo, Colo., with its attendant roll of death, Grand Exalted Ruler Abbott didn't wait to start details. The newspapers told him of the great need of help of all kinds—food, clothing, housing and money. Mr. Abbott immediately requested the Grand Treasurer to place $10,000 to the credit of the Pueblo Lodge of Elks. He didn't have to tell them what to do with the money. But as soon as the funds got in touch with the Exalted Ruler of the Pueblo lodge, he instructed him to acquire the Grand Lodge with any and all assets that could be used to help relieve the situation, with the assurance that aid would be forthcoming as fast as railroads could transport it.

THAT'S THE WAY OF THE ELKS.

In his report to the grand lodge Mr. Abbott tells of another good deed of the Elks during the past year. It was an appropriation for M. D. Ferguson in charge, is chief auditor. Other committee members have been elected from the patient body consisting of eight women and about forty men, all of whom were wounded or disabled in the recent World War.

The musical farce-comedy, "The Woman Hater," of which Catherine B. Volkmer is author and director and Katherine J. Smith composer, is filled with healthful original songs, brand new wit and humor, both stage and classic dancing, supported by a strong cast with a real chorus and a fine orchestra. The production will be presented this Saturday at one of the Los Angeles theaters in the near future.

AMONG THE SCREEN NOTABLES

is Miss Wanda Hawley of the Lasky studio, Miss Shirley Mason, Buck Jones, Tom Mix and William Russell of the Fox studio, Miss Helene Clavin, Miss Gloria Grier, Miss Shannon Day and Charles Murray of the Mack Bennett studio, Miss Virginia Alsworth, Miss Ruth Roland and Harry Girard of the Hal E. Roach studio, and Miss Edith Roberts of the Universal studio. They are donating their services and most of them will be able to act as hostesses and hosts of the various boxes in the "horseshoe."

DEPARTMENT STORE COURSE WILL OPEN.

INNOVATION IN EDUCATIONAL LINES TO BE UNDERTAKEN BY UNIVERSITY.

A course in department store operation, an innovation in educational lines, will be initiated Monday by the college of commerce of the University of Southern California. The course will study the workings of the Broadway Department Store.

TELEGRAMS AWAIT ELKS.

Messages addressed in care of the Elks Grand Lodge convention for the following visitors and delegates remain undelivered at the main office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, 608 South Spring street, for want of sufficient address: A. J. Pierce, George Wilson from Homestead, Pa.; Thomas A. Boyle, James P. Hood, George A. Krie, Harry Barkerding, Earl Henderson, John McLaughlin, Jack R. Burke, John P. McDann from Somerville, Mass.; M. W. Jones, Rhode Island delegation, and Maurice C. O'Leary.

"TIMES" BOY IS HERO.

Max Goodman, 12 years of age, who sells The Times, was a real hero last night. He was doing business at the corner of Broadway and 42nd street when a fire broke out in a building across the street. He saw a man running away with a bundle of silver plates and he followed him. He saw the man throw the plates into a fire and he called the fire department. He was a hero.

EMORY EWART WATCHORN IS LAID TO REST IN HOLLYWOOD CEMETERY.

Funeral services for Emory Ewart Watchorn, lieutenant aviator in the World War and recently associated in the oil business with his father, Robert Watchorn, were conducted yesterday in Hollywood Cemetery. Rev. E. E. Helms of the First Methodist Episcopal Church officiated in the cemetery chapel, which was filled with friends of Mr. Watchorn and Dean MacCormack of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral at the grave.

NIGHT PAGEANT
TO BE WONDER.Electrical Parade to Attract Throng This Evening.Huge Display Contributed by Cinema Studios.Queer Machines, Animals and Floats to be in Line.

To thousands of visiting bills, and especially to the Mrs. Bills from other cities and states, tonight's electrical pageant, the motion-picture world's contribution to the entertainment of the Elks, will be perhaps, one of the biggest, if not the biggest, feature of the entire Grand Lodge reunion.

Silver screen fans the world over are more or less familiar with cinema camera and such intriguing words as "director," "location," "stills," and all the other jargon which motion picturedom has made its own. But to few has been vouchsafed knowledge of the great mass of intricate and costly apparatus, which motion picture studios employ to produce what are known as "effects."

To the layman a generator truck, a bunch of mechanics and noisy machinery and interest lags at the very sound of the words. But to those who witness the big parade tonight there is a genuine surprise in store, for things with such strange names as lightning trucks and wind machines, will be in the parade and the intricacy of the design, the ingenuity of their mechanics, will be likely to startle the uninformed.

WONDERS OF PARADE.
Wind machines, built on special trucks and designed to create a veritable cyclone, for motion-picture purposes, mobile generator apparatus, capable of lighting small cities, flash-light machines, now called "stills," which will flash a single flash can turn a hole through a sheet of steel, these and many other strange looking contrivances will have prominent places in the parade.

But these form only a portion of what is in store for Bill and Mrs. Bill. Two hundred marching men, each holding above his head an electrically lighted umbrella, wonderfully conceived and beautifully decorated floats from the various motion-picture studios of Los Angeles, bathing girls, elephants, camels and all the other circus animals of the various studios, mounted Indians and Mexicans, cowboys and cowgirls, celebrities of the moving-picture world—all these will be in the parade.

And, lest the visitor fails to comprehend it in all its magnificence, the Universal Film Company, has completed arrangements for taking moving pictures of the parade and will furnish every lodge throughout the country desiring to use it, a film of the parade to be shown in the respective lodge rooms.

GREAT PROJECT.
The project is one of the greatest ever undertaken jointly by the cinema companies of Los Angeles and in no other city in the world is such a huge scheme of electrical pageantry possible, for no where would such an enormous amount of mobile electrical apparatus be assembled.

Headed by the grand marshal, George M. Brown, exquire of Los Angeles Lodge of Elks No. 99, the parade is to get under way promptly at 8 p.m.

Well up at the head of the procession will be the 200 marching men with their electrically lighted umbrellas, and white umbrellas. Then will come at intervals the various floats, generator trucks, animals and circus features. Six big bands will furnish the music for the various marching divisions.

Harry D. Brown,
Chairman of electrical pageant committee of Lodge No. 99, R.P.O.E.

Members of the Los Angeles lodge, No. 99, who will act as escort of the parade, will report to Harry M. Weir and Capt. Richard Hill, heading the committee in charge, at Sixteenth and Hill streets at 8:45 o'clock.

SECRET FEATURES.
Although the nature of several entries in the parade is being kept a dark secret in order that the surprise may be more complete, the general make-up of the parade, as given out by members of the electrical pageant committee last night, will be about as follows:

Universal Film Company—Six floats, two generator trucks, one lighting truck, three wind machines, one air compressor, two circus wagons, one cage of lions, one automobile carrying Joe Martin, nationally famous orangutan.
Ambassador Film Company—One float.

Metro Pictures Corporation—One float, one generator truck.
Fox Film Company—One float.
Vitaphone Film Company—One float.
Hut Roach Studio—One one-man street car.

Falkbank Studio—Sixteenth century coach.
Mammoth Players Studio—One float, one generator truck.
Mack Bennett Studio—Float carrying Ben Turpin and "Korpio" Morgan; automobile with Bennett Bathing Beauties.

Thomas H. Ince Studio—Two floats, one by Hobart Bosworth; two generator trucks.
Brunton Studio—Two floats, two generator trucks.
Mary Pickford Company—One generator truck as float.
Charles Chaplin Company—One float.

Russell & Russell—Stage coach, Christie Film Company—French coach with "Crimoline Girl".
L. B. Mayer Studio—One float.
Edg. Zoo—One animal float, elephant, three camels and circus ponies.
Red Riders Productions—Twenty mounted riders, one decorated automobile.
Clara Kimball Young—One float.
Cinema Studio Supply Company—One float, one wind machine.
Winfield-Kerner Company—One float.
Lola Weber Productions—One float, one generator set.
Automobiles carrying Grand Marshal and other officials.

NAVY AIR MEET HEADLINER

Saturday's flying program to entertain the Elks at the Los Angeles Speedway, will be given over principally to the Navy aviators and the commercial flyers will act as a reception committee. While planned as part of the Elks' week, the speedway will be open to the general public at a nominal admission fee, both on Saturday and Sunday.

The best in the air branch of Uncle Sam's Navy will be seen in Saturday's flying, with the exception of the big seaplanes, which cannot fly inland, and the huge rigid dirigible, which is expected to fly across the Atlantic in September. All other latest developments in the Navy's air defense and offense will participate in the program.

TO SHOW PLANES.
Among these are fifteen or twenty huge planes of the latest type. Torpedo planes, bombers, and other air monsters have places on the program. The other extreme of the little air wings, will demonstrate their importance in the Navy's air program. Dirigible aircraft, "blimps" and others will make up a showing of advancement made since the war in naval air warfare.

MOTORCYCLES TO ACT AS COURIERS.
MANY DETAILS.
The enormous mass of details necessary to the successful carrying out of the big project has been worked out by the electrical pageant committee of Los Angeles Lodge No. 99, of which Chief Engineer Harry D. Brown, department of electricity at Universal City, is the chairman.

Assisting Mr. Brown are Norman A. Ballie, Harry M. Weir, Jack Doyle, Roy Hotel, Benjamin Pink, Albert DeBua, O. L. Ballie and Richard H. Hill, all prominently connected with the electrical engineering department of the city's largest studios.

FRENCH ASK ELKS TO JOIN CELEBRATION
Visitors Invited to Help Observe Fall of Bastille at Pageant, Ball Today.

Elks and their friends are invited by the executive committee of the French colony of Los Angeles and Southern California to join with the latter in celebrating today the 132nd anniversary of the fall of the Bastille, the independence day of France.

The ceremony will be held in the agnory at Exposition Park, and an extensive program of singing a grand patriotic ball and pageant has been arranged to begin at 2 p.m. Proportionate to the celebration will be used for the French war orphans and French veterans of the World War.

A leading part of the program will be the costume representation of loyalty to America, by Mlle. Marie Plou and similar scenes in behalf of Alsace, by Mlle. L. Heiser, and of Lorraine by Mlle. Yvonne Van den Broek. Presentation of two handsome flags, one of the United States and the other of France, will be made by the local French Consul Agent Louis Sauton, in the evening before the grand ball. The flags are given by the French Southern California Federation of French Veterans. Benediction of the flags will be pronounced by Rev. P. Mirat, vicar-president of the section.

PROTESTS PROPOSED CRUDE OIL TARIFF.

SAN FERNANDO MAN SAYS PLAN WILL BE BLOW TO THE FARMERS.

E. R. Elkins, director of the San Fernando Valley Fair & Market, Inc., yesterday forwarded a protest to Washington against the inclusion of crude oil on the dutiable list as proposed in the Fordney tariff bill, to be voted on in Congress a week from today. Elkins says the proposed tariff will increase the price of gasoline and hamper the return to normalcy of American business, he says:

"Any measure which in any way makes possible an increase in the cost of gasoline, distillates or lubricating oil, places an almost insurmountable barrier to the development of modern agriculture by the use of power farming machinery. The duty proposed in the Fordney bill will vastly increase the cost of the refined asphalt and road oils manufactured from Mexican oils, and consequently will add to the taxed cost of building bituminous roads and streets. To add to the cost now would seriously hamper States and counties in carrying out road-building programs that involve a constantly increasing use of bituminous materials."

"The proposed tariff would curtail the supply of asphalt by 50 per cent, and the industry would also seriously affect building operations, and considering the present housing shortage, and in view of the fact that asphalt roofing now comprises 10 per cent of all roofing used in the United States, this would add to living costs."

"Agriculture has battled bravely in the last two years to reconstruct and readjust conditions attendant upon the production of live stock and food. It has not prospered but has held its own through modernization in the use of labor-saving machinery, almost all of which is operated by gasoline."

"If gasoline goes up in price, as it will under a protective tariff, living will go up proportionately and the farmer, in his battle for existence, will have a new foe to fight."

"The argument of cheap labor does not apply in the proposed tariff on oil, which is aimed at the Mexican field. Oil coming from Mexico is in a large measure American, as it is produced by American money, brains and skill, and at a labor cost one and one-half times as large as that in the United States for similar work."

"Oil is an American industry operating in Mexico, rather than an alien industry, which is the industry built up to be treated as alien and taxed, not for purposes of revenue but to drive it out of the American market, such action will be the strongest discouragement possible for other Americans to follow the urging of our Executive in seeking oil abroad. In fact, such action will strongly favor of bad faith."

REALTY MEN ORGANIZED FOR UPLIFT.

Associated Subdividers to Form Code of Ethics for Excursion System Dealers.

Organization of the Associated Subdividers of Southern California, a body composed of subdividers of Los Angeles who specialize in selling suburban property through the excursion method, was completed at a meeting which was held Tuesday evening, when the owners and salesmen of fifteen firms were in attendance to complete the organization. The foundation of this association is the outgrowth of a series of informal meetings which have been held for the past two years, and it was formed for the purpose of working out a code of ethics to guide the conduct of realty brokers engaged in the sale of real estate in this manner. Members of the association have been in conference with the Los Angeles Realty Board and with Ray L. Riley, State Real Estate Commissioner, for some time, and the final plan of organization has the endorsement of both the Board and of Mr. Riley, it is claimed.

"It is the sincere desire of this association to put the subdivision business on a basis which will reflect credit on every firm in the city," said President Chadwick yesterday. "Our object will be to promote the best interests of those engaged in the development of suburban property, and the establishment of the subdivision business upon a basis that will promote the welfare of the community and client to the end that the subdivision business will take its proper place as a reputable factor in city and community building."

Subdividers of the city, in co-operation with Lodge 99 of the Elks, has donated more than fifteen buses for the use of charitable organizations, disabled veterans and orphans in order to furnish transportation to those who would otherwise be unable to witness the Elks' parade. "Our object will be to provide the best interests of those engaged in the development of suburban property, and the establishment of the subdivision business upon a basis that will promote the welfare of the community and client to the end that the subdivision business will take its proper place as a reputable factor in city and community building."

It is estimated that more than 500 veterans and orphans will be enabled to see the parade in this manner. Refreshments for them will be furnished by the Knights of Columbus.

The following charter members of the Associated Subdividers of Southern California attended the meeting on Tuesday evening: Laguna Land and Water Company, Myers & Platt, Averill-Weymouth Company, W. A. Heitman Company, George Race, Emil Firth & Co., Harry H. Heitman, Coleman & Rosser Company, E. E. Shaffer, Charles B. Hopper Company, F. P. Newport Company, and Dominguez Land Company. An active part was taken by W. A. Heitman, Emil Firth, F. P. Newport and S. C. Graham in perfecting the program.

PROTEST TOO LATE.
Council's Decision in Hollywood Cemetery Extension Case.

Protests against the enlargement of the Hollywood Cemetery, filed by the Santa Monica and Vine Boulevard Business Club, were turned down yesterday afternoon by the City Council's Public Welfare Committee. The Hollywood residents said that the owners of the cemetery are planning to use for burial grounds one-half of the land owned by the cemetery, which is now used for farming. The Councilmen held an active part was taken by W. A. Heitman, Emil Firth, F. P. Newport and S. C. Graham in perfecting the program. It is too late to protest against their use.

De Valera Confers With Premier.

Aspects for Peace Bright, Says Statement Made After Conference.

The Exchange of Views is Had in Session Lasting More Than Two Hours.

By C. G. and Associated Press.
LONDON, July 14.—Premier David Lloyd George and Eamon De Valera, Irish Republican leader, met together in the Premier's study in Downing street this morning, and spent more than two hours in a half-making deal to settle the differences between the two men. ## NERVOUS, IRRITABLE, SAILING WOMEN

Mrs. Britton Tells How She Was Restored To Health After Suffering for More Than A Year.

Another Triumph for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dimondale, Mich.—"I had inflammation and a displacement and weakness, and it had been neglected so long that it caused great pain, and this affected my mind and nerves so that I was very irritable. I had severe pains every month, so that I was often obliged to lie in bed for two days at a time. I suffered for more than a year before my friends said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' So I purchased one bottle after another until I had taken ten bottles, then Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I received so much benefit from this treatment that I am now able to do my own work."—Mrs. W. D. Britton, R. No. 2, Dimondale, Mich.

Another Michigan Woman says: "I was bothered for a long time with female troubles and was so nervous I felt almost afraid at times. I also had a pain in my right side and was certainly in a bad way. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has relieved me of those nervous feelings and pains and I am much better. I took it for nearly a year and it has done me a world of good."—Mrs. Jennie Grogan, R. No. 1, Box 51, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Good health is a woman's greatest asset. With it she may be the inspiration of her husband, a happy mother, and the life of the home. Without it she suffers agonies, herself, household duties are a burden, and her family is made miserable by her condition.

Is it any wonder that these women were nervous and irritable after suffering so long from such deranged conditions? Such ailments act directly upon the nervous, and it has been said that a large percentage of nervous prostration, nervous dependency, "the blues," and nervous irritability of women arise from some derangement of the female organism.

If women who are in this condition would only profit by the experience of others and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, much suffering and unhappiness would be averted, as everyone knows a nervous, irritable, ailing mother makes the home unhappy and her condition irritates both husband and children.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.
